Reflections Of Life

Juawanna Renee Fletcher-Charles was born on April 10, 1959 in Kansas City, Missouri to John David Ross, and Johnnie Mae (Ross) Turner. She attended the Kansas City Missouri Public School System, graduating from Central High School class of 1977. Juawanna professed her faith in Christ at an early age.

She began her career in high school, working as a federal employee, then branched off into the Hotel Industry where she worked at Hotels such as the Hilton Plaza Inn, and the Westin Crown Center for over 20 years. She later went into the customer service industry working for Lock/line, H&R Block, DST, and the Social Security Administration. Throughout her career, she built a lot of relationships and met a lot of great friends.

Juawanna had a passion for shopping and finding great deals, especially at her favorite store Cargo Largo. She enjoyed traveling, decorating, event planning, and quality time with family and friends. She also loved spending time with her Kawboy's Motorcycle family and extended Motorcycle family, gardening, Barbecuing and her family game days filled with Karaoke and our outdoor movies nights. Her favorite thing was her Friday nights with her grandbabies.

Juawanna was compassionate, loving, caring, straight forward, and always said EXACTLY what was on her mind. She had a loving and personable spirit everyone would gravitate to. Her children's friends became her children as well.

Juawanna married Donnell Fletcher in 1978 and to this union two beautiful children were born, Donnell La 'Ron, and Dawneisha La 'Trice. She later met Victor E. Charles Sr. in 1996. They were joined in union on November 14, 2015 through this union she gained an additional 4 children and 6 grandchildren. She was an amazing daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, and cousin, and there wasn't ANYTHING she wouldn't do for her mother, husband, children, grandchildren, siblings, nieces, and nephews.

Juawanna departed this blessed life on Thursday, February 3, 2022. She was preceded in death by her (father), John David Ross; (sisters), Janice Ross, and Martha Brown; and (brother), James Ross.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her (husband), Victor E. Charles Sr.; (mother), Johnnie Mae Turner; (children), Donnell Fletcher (Shamai), and Dawneisha Fletcher; (grandchildren) Camry, Aniyah, Donell, Brooklyn and Elaina; (siblings), David Ross(Carla), Francisca Young, Jeffery Ross (Marla), and Jackie Ross; (bonus children), Victor E. Charles Jr. (Karen), Vincent Charles, Yolonda Thompson, Iiona Charles; bonus grandchildren; and also a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, Godchildren, other relatives, friends, and coworkers; special friends; Lisa Taylor, and Kimburly Moore.

God looked around his garden and found an empty space. Then He looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.

Acknowledgement

The family of Juawanna Fletcher-Charles wishes to extend our appreciation for the many prayers and acts of kindness during this extremely difficult time. No one knows the day or hour, but this loss has been made more bearable by your loving actions and support. Thank you for many card, telephone calls, gifts, donations and visits. Please keep us lifted up in your prayers.

To My Wife,

True beauty wasn't found in the clothes that you wore, the brand of perfume, the style of your hair. It's not nails or makeup but beauty is what I woke up to each day. It was the soft, classy naturally lovable you- that's beauty. One hundred percent pure and true.

Love,

Victor E. Charles Sr.

To Our Mother,

It didn't take a lifetime to truly appreciate all the ways you were an amazing Mother and it made all the difference in our lives. You've made our heart warmer and our life richer in too many ways to count. We know that so much of the happiness we've experienced can be traced back to your love. We want to say Thank you, Momma for all your unconditional love, wisdom and strength. We are forever blessed and grateful!
