

a true fisherman

knows when and where
the fish are biting.

He rises up early in the morning,
plying the water for that

elusive catch,
waiting in the stillness for a nibble

A slight twitch in the line, expertly he reels it in –

A good fisherman

knows a keeper when he sees one,
he knows when to toss one back,

and when to head for home.

To know you are with us in our time of Sorrow

Sharing our prayers,
Today & tomorrow

God gives us comfort in the form of family & friends.

May His peace be with you,
His love never ends.

Daniel Thomas Keever, Sr.

October 30, 1942 - July 25, 2023

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Loving Memory*

Mr. Daniel Thomas Keever, Sr., 80, formerly of the Rock Branch Community in Elberton, husband of 60 years to Linda Gayle Coffee Keever, passed away on Tuesday, July 25, 2023, at his residence in Newborn.

Born in Lilburn on October 30, 1942, Dan was the eighth of nine children born to Leon Houston Keever and Eunice Myrtle Richardson Keever. He was a 1960 graduate of Lilburn High School and furthered his education at Massey Business School in Atlanta. Dan began his career at the Fulton County Health Department where he was a computer operator. He later entered the transportation industry where he would retire as Vice President of Traffic and Sales of Brown Transport. After retirement, he and Linda founded Southern Transport Company where they worked as consultants and assistants to various trucking companies.

They moved to Elberton in the early 2000s to be near Lake Russell. The couple enjoyed spending their time together fishing and immersing themselves into the community. Dan and Linda became active members of Rock Branch Baptist Church. In his spare time, he enjoyed restoring tractors.

Surviving, in addition to his wife of 60 years, are his son, Daniel Thomas "Danny" Keever, Jr. and his wife Sharon of Newborn; daughter, Kimberly Lynn Keever Cannon and her husband Darryl of Powder Springs; siblings: Felix Keever of Lilburn and Emily Bennett of Dacula; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.
