Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched...
for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

Obituary

On Wednesday, April 5, 2023, Mrs. Christine Williams passed away peacefully at the age of 76 years old, surrounded by her husband Dwight and her daughter Angela. Christine was born in Long Branch, NJ on March 12, 1947 to the late George Washington and Annie B. Colbert. Christine attended elementary school in Long Branch, NJ where she graduated from the Long Branch High School in June, 1965. Christine resided in Long Branch, NJ until she relocated to Savannah, GA in June, 2000. Christine was the beloved mother of four children, whom she raised in Long Branch, NJ as well.

After graduating from Long Branch High School, Christine attended the Monmouth County Vocational School where she studied Nursing. Christine graduated from Monmouth County Vocational School as a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN). While raising her children, Christine enrolled and graduated from Brookdale Community College with her Bachelor's Degree in Nursing, becoming a Registered Nurse (RN).

Christine enjoyed her employment as a Nurse at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, NJ eventually becoming an Operating Room Nurse. When Christine relocated to Savannah, GA she continued working in the Nursing field at St. Joseph's Hospital and Candler Hospital, both in Savannah, GA. At the end of her career, she retired and became a Substitute School Nurse in the Chatham County Public Schools.

Christine enjoyed long walks and traveling with her husband Dwight, in particular walking along Lake Mayer. Christine loved singing and baking and you could always find her baking apple pies and peach cobbles, while singing all of the Motown hits. In her younger years, Christine enjoyed bowling on several leagues and in later years, enjoyed reading her Bible. She loved and adored her grandchildren and great grandchildren, often dancing with them.

Christine is predeceased by her parents, George Washington and Annie B. Colbert; five brothers, one granddaughter, (Bethany); and one great-grandson, (Christopher).

Christine is survived by her loving husband, who took loving care of her until the end, Dwight Williams. Christine is also survived by her three daughters, Felecia (NJ), Angela (SC), Danielle (GA) and her son Darrien (GA); devoted son-in-law, Ron (NJ), devoted daughter-in-law, Rakeal (Ethiopia). Christine is also survived by her eleven grandchildren, Samoura (NJ), Douglas (NJ), Michael (NJ), Trenee (GA) Malik (NV), Deja (OH), Velma (GA), Jerrica (SC), Donovan (GA) Jacob and Jabez (Ethiopia); and twelve great grandchildren, with one on the way who will hear wonderful stories about her great grandmother. Christine also leaves to cherish fond memories, one sister, five brothers and their spouses, many nieces, nephews, cousins and lifelong friends.
