Ma,

It's hard to say goodbye. It's all unreal and I will cry for you whenever I think about you which will be all the time. Your all I ever knew you were sweet and sour and we had a bond that no one could ever break. I loved you, I will always love and miss you.

Until I see you take care of Neira for me and party with the rest of our angels.

Your daughter,
Sherie Harris aka your Shumkim

Called Away

Our dear one was called away. And has gone with the Lord to stay. Although this passing makes us weep. We rejoice our loved one rests safe in God's keep. You will be missed when this day is done. You will be in our hearts when night fall comes. I will not forget your laughs, jokes and your smiles. As for family, you went that extra mile. I am sad with tears upon my face. But I must believe you are in a better place. We shared good times, heartaches, and pain. But God saw more than I did and he knew how much you could sustain. You are free because God gave you the key, the key to heaven where there is no suffering or pain. The key to eternal life without a ball and chain. Goodbye my friend Delores (Bootsie). We will always love you.

Your Friend,
Brenda

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a flower piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much -
Whatever the part.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Her STORY

Delores Ebron (Tootie) was born November 5, 1949 to the late Virginia Belamy and Thurman Tillery in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She sadly departed this life and went home to be with the Lord July 7, 2024.

She grew up on Bethel St. in Baltimore where she met her friends Janet and Cookie who would later become sisters. She attended the Baltimore school district and received her G.E.D. at Dunbar High School in Maryland. She later became a dedicated employee for the city of Baltimore Social Services Department until she retired. Delores then moved her family back to Philadelphia where she worked for Pennsylvania Department of Probation and Parole in Philadelphia until she retired in 2010. She then went on to start her own daycare.

Delores reunited with her childhood sweetheart the late Roger Ebron. They married on September 16, 2000. They were happily married until his passing in 2017.

Delores, lovingly also known as Boosie enjoyed dancing, cook outs, decorating, gambling, and partying with family and friends. She loved her pets Kasino and grand pup, Marley. She was kind, loving and giving. Those who came in contact with her knew she would give the shirt off her back. She was a very special person.

Delores is preceded in death by husband, Roger Ebron, brother, Charles Belamy, niece, Paula, and granddaughter, Neicara.

Delores leaves behind to cherish her memory, son, Danon Lowry, daughter, Sherie Harris, sister, Shirley Simmons, brother, Jesse Belamy, 5 grandchildren, Simere, Nazir, Alysa, Noel and Jayda, one great granddaughter, Kaylin, two nephews, James and Jared, son in law, Shadir, daughter in law, Diamond, a host of adopted grandchildren, cousins, friends and family, including her besties, Neicy, Brenda and Crystal.

Lovingly submitted,

The Family

STAY CLOSE

Stay close, my family. Let nothing keep you apart.
If I could have stayed longer I would have,
But God willed that I depart.

Stay close, my family. Comfort each other. Love each other.
Support each other. Remember our other. Love each other.
Remember our happy times. Remember how I loved you.
So, stay close, my family and let nothing keep you apart.
