

Robert "Bob" Kurt Schueler was born on October 5, 1956, in Willmar, Minnesota, the son of Kurt and Martha (Fruhling) Schueler. He grew up on a farm near Raymond, was baptized and confirmed at St. John's Lutheran Church, graduated from Raymond High School in 1974, and became engaged in farming with his family. On August 26, 1978, Bob was united in marriage to Cathy Lynn Erickson. They made their home on the family farmstead and were blessed with two children, Amanda and Ryan. In the 1980's, Bob stopped farming and rented out the land. He then worked at Hanson Silo Company for over 20 years and then at Arnold's in Willmar for over 14 years, before retiring on May 31, 2023.

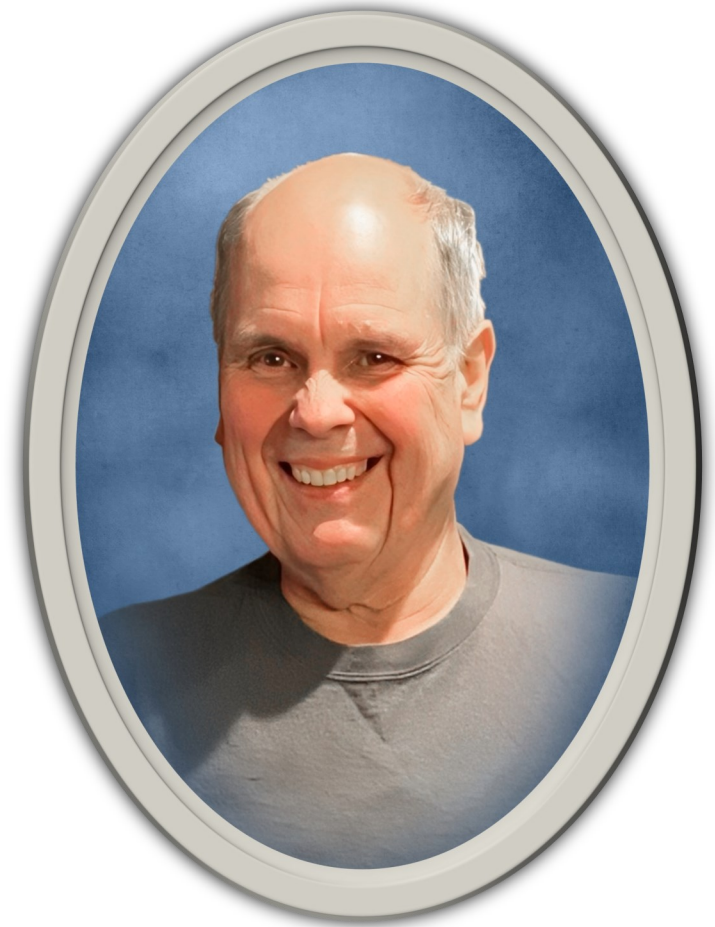

Bob was an active member of Tripolis Lutheran Church, singing in the choir, serving on the church council and other committees. He served for 9 years on the Kandiyohi County Fair Board. He enjoyed farming, hunting, fishing, bowling and golfing. Bob bowled in church league and golfed with the Kerkhoven men's group for several years. He was also a MN Vikings fan...most of the time. Bob loved his family, especially his two granddaughters and would do anything for them.

He is survived by his loving wife, Cathy; his two children, Amanda Schueler of Hutchinson and Ryan (and Amber) Schueler of Willmar; two grandchildren, Quinn and Evy Schueler and three brothers, Dean (and Sharon) Schueler of Sioux Falls, SD, Don (and Shirley) Schueler of Willmar and Ron (and Donna) Schueler of Willmar, besides other relatives and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
