THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

In Gethsemane the cup of woe trembled in His hand. He might even then have wiped the blood-sweat from His brow and have left the guilty race to perish in their iniquity. Had He done this, there could have been no redemption for fallen men. But when the Saviour yielded up His life, and with His expiring breath cried out, "it is finished," then the fulfillment of the plan of redemption was assured. Great Controversy, 348.
