"Miss Me But Let Me Go"

When I come to the end of the road, And the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long, And not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we must all take, And each must go alone, It's all a part of the Master's plan, A step on the road to home,
When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the friends we knew, And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me-but let me go.

Dear Cousin Your memory will never fade "
My dear Toy.. now that you are gone, you're no longer here to share the bond we had together. A bond of love, laughter & care.
I remember the times we spent eating together, chatting & laughing .
Our path may change as life goes on but the bond between us remains ever strong.
You will truly be missed
Love Corey

Eulogist ~ Rev. Dr. Janice Gilbert (Pastor)

And he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, anymore the first things are passed away.
