- Obituary -

Mr. William Dennis Featherson

the son of the late, David F. Featherson and Madie Featherson, was born December 12, 1942 in Elm City, North Carolina.

William was reared in Elm City, North Carolina and was educated in the Wilson County Public School System. He attended the Fredrick Douglas School in Elm City where he received his high school education. After the completion of his high school education, he went on to be a certified auto mechanic. During his lifetime, William held various jobs. These jobs included Capital Metro (City of Austin Transportation) in Austin, Texas, and State Employee Transportation Personnel from 2004 until his retirement in 2012.

Believing in the power and love of God, William Dennis Featherson, confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord, and Savior. He united with the Hickory Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Rocky Mount, North Carolina under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Oliver Jenkins. Mr. Featherson enjoyed the taught and preached word and the fellowship among other congregants. Upon William's faithfulness to God, Hickory Grove, and his community, he was consecrated as a deacon. Deacon Featherson was also the Chairman of the Deacon Board. He enjoyed the word of God so much, he applied that while serving as the assistant Sunday School Superintendent.

A true and faithful servant has gone from labor to reward and will be missed by all who knew him. Preceding him in death along with his parents are three brothers, Robert Featherson, Troy Featherson, and James D. Featherson and one sister, Grace Speight.

Loving and lasting memories are left to be cherished by his wife, Clara Featherson; one daughter, Christy Featherson; three sons, William Featherson, Clarence Featherson, and James Shaw; six grandchildren, Trevaughn Shaw, Jazmin Shaw, Jhalyne Williams, Marshone' Featherson, Kaleb Featherson, and Kaden Featherson, and a host of extended family members and friends.

Forever
