No Last Farewell

She wished no one a last farewell
Nor even said goodbye
She was gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Her life was full of kindly deeds,
A helping hand to all in need
A pleasant smile, a heart of gold
No finer person this world could behold.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Special Thanks

Special thanks to Sacko Service Healthcare Agency, the Hopkins, Williams, Jones, Green and Spencer families for all your support.

Acknowledgments

The family would like to thank everyone for all the expression of love. May God Bless Each of You.

Her Story

Addie L Taylor, the devoted daughter of (William) Zerty Jones and Jessie Bell Hopkins was born on June 21, 1931, in Pitts County, NC. At the age of 17 Addie moved to Philadelphia, PA where her longevity of life began.

She worked as a factory worker prior to becoming retired/disabled. Addie married twice and had one son, Eugene Vernon Singletary, who all preceded her in death.

Addie was the heart and foundation of her family who lived to see 4 generations. She was known for keeping everyone connected by taking trips to visit family and talking on the phone.

She loved to listen to her Sunday sermons and gospel when she was no longer able to attend church. Also, you could catch Addie in the casino at the nickel machines.

We will all miss her love, laughter, and spirit. She is survived by 3 grandchildren Regina Simmons-Robinson, Denise Singletary (husband Raimundo Sinchi) and Jerry Simmons (wife Desha Jackson-Simmons) 11 great grandchildren Marketta, Heaven, Keyon, Jared, Illeana and Amber Simmons, Hakeem Riley, Alana Jones, Maiya Bostic, Dawn and Keith Robinson Jr. and 11 great-great-grandchildren Zyfir, Jolie, Kamaya, Masaad, Malia, Makayla, Marley, YaSin, Yara, King and Jermaine Jr. Her sister Germaine Jones and 2 brothers Edward and Arnold Jones, a host of nieces, nephews, and family.
