Loving Memories

Your gentle face and patient smile

With sadness we recall

You had a kind word for each

And died beloved by all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart

That loved us well and true,

Ah, bitter was the trial to part

From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten loved one

Nor will you ever be

As long as life and memory last

We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,

As time goes by we miss you more,

Your loving smile, your gentle face,

No one can fill your vacant place.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude for the numerous calls, cards, prayers, and all expressions of sympathy they have received during their time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each and every one of you.

Nancy's Life Story

Nancy Helen Faulkner of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, passed away on Wednesday, July 19, 2023. Nancy was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Paul Henry Stephens and Viola Rivers on April 13, 1938.

Nancy went to school in Philadelphia and graduated from William Penn High School in the 1950's. She worked in Dietary at Thomas Jefferson Hospital in the 1950's. She went on to work for Roxborough Hospital in the 1960's as an SPD Tech and retired from there in the early 2000's. She also worked for Pennsylvania Hospital from the 1980's where she also retired in the early 2000's. She worked two eight-hour jobs for fifteen years.

She was baptized in the early 1970's at Corpus Christy Catholic Church. Nancy was joined in marriage to James Faulkner in September 1962. Together they shared three children, Robert Rivers, Helena Robinson-Bey, and Diane Faulkner. She lived and bought her home in the 3200 block of 27th Street in the early 1960's where she lived until she passed.

Nancy was loved by many. She was always taking care of others, sharing her time and whatever she had looking for nothing in return. Nancy liked to travel, dine out, she liked to keep her nails and hair done and most of all she liked attending Mass. She was a devoted Catholic and really loved the Lord. She helped wherever she could. She was a kind, gentle person, soft-spoken, hardworking, and devoted.

Nancy is survived by one son, Robert Rivers, two daughters, Diane Faulkner and Helena Robinson-Bey, son-in-law Christopher Robinson Bey, two sisters, Henrietta Stephens, and Diane Stephens, one brother-in-law, J.P. and one daughter-in-law Cinthia Rivers, two great-grand daughters, Desiree Rivers and Kierra Daves, many nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors, friends, Sheila Robinson-Lon Lon, and my husband Chris.

Lovingly submitted, The Family
