

Dwight Everett Teske

was born December 12, 1952 to Philip and Lois (Bang) Teske. He spent most of his childhood years in Indiana and Maryland. Dwight graduated from Bowie High School in Bowie, Maryland and then continued his education at the University of Maryland where he received a bachelor's degree in Water Resource Management and Agronomy. After graduating from college he began working in the oilfield, however, it wasn't until he started working for the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) that he found his true passion for work. Dwight worked at a number of locations throughout his thirty years with the NRCS. Spending his working days outside visiting with people all around the state was the favorite part of his career. In 1987, Dwight married Lonnie (Overby) and they were blessed with two children; Brennan and McKell, who were his greatest joy and always his first priority. Later he became a grandfather to Grady (2017) and Edynn (2018), both of whom sparked a new kind of love in his life. He truly loved spending time with them and teaching them all about life. Dwight will be deeply missed by his family. Dwight had a strong passion for nature; you could always find him outside working in the yard with the family dog by his side or deer-hunting with loved ones. After his retirement in 2013, he enjoyed traveling throughout the US and to multiple countries. Dwight had a big heart for helping others, always putting everyone's needs before his. Dwight is survived by his children, Brennan Teske and McKell (Trent Landis) Teske; grandchildren, Grady and Edynn; brother, Brian (Ann) Teske; sisters, Lynnae (Chris) Finseth and Debbie (Billy) Wedin; partner, Christine Kempf; and numerous nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents, Philip and Lois, and a sister, Pam.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning, that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we can not see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

In Loving Memory

Dad

When the angels came to get you,
They took along a piece of us all.
So while you're looking down from heaven,
Don't let your teardrops fall.

'Cuz you raised us good, you raised us proud,
Our head will stay high,
Our hearts will ache, tears will fall,
But this is not good bye.

Your body may have left us,
Your spirit never will,
We are who we are because of you,
Our memories with you will never stay still.

Your legacy will go on forever
Through the children's actions, words and ways.
Your soft heart, strong will, and talents
You've passed to us along the way.

Dad, continue watching over us,
We will miss you night and day
But go now, Dad, to be with your parents,
We will meet you there someday.
