

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On behalf of Treatha Drew Family there's no words that can express how thankful and grateful we are for the prayers thoughts, visits, phone calls and other expressions of love that were shown during our bereavement. Your friendship and support has been a blessings to us and we pray God's blessing over each of you.

I'm Free

*Don't Grieve for me, for now I'm Free
I'm Free I'm following the Path god
Has chosen for me. I took his hand
When I heard him call I turned my back,
And left it all. I could not stay another
Day to laugh, to love, to work or play
Task left undone must stay that way.
I have now found peace at the end of the
Day .If my parting has left a void then fill
It with remembered joys.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow, my
Life been full I savored much good
Friends, good times, a loved one touch.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee.
God wanted me now he set me free*

John 14: 1-3

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me so that you also may be where I am.

Life Reflections

On July 31, 1934 in Eudora, Arkansas, Daisy Washington and Shellie Smith were blessed with a beautiful daughter, Treatha Drew.

Treatha attended Eudora Arkansas school system, and was a member of Bloomy Shade Baptist Church for many years. She moved her family to Kansas City, Missouri in 1979 for a better life. She was known as one of the most loving and kindest people you would ever want to meet.

Treatha loved her family and during her spare time she loved reading her bible, listening to gospel music, shopping, eating out at restaurants, watching classic movies and soap operas.

Treatha departed this life on Thursday, October 17, 2024. She was preceded in death by Roosevelt Thompson Sr., Husband, Frank Drew, and Father, Shellie Smith.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Alice Thompson-Strother (Tony), Patsy Thompson, Mary Drew-Blackwell, Joyce Drew, Pearlina-Holloway and Son, Stanley Drew, all of Kansas City, Missouri; Vera Drew of Chicago Illinois, Sharon, Jason of Houston, Texas; one sister Mary Carson of Pine Bluff, Arkansas; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
