

DAVID LLOYD STROUBE

David Lloyd Stroube, 50, of Bowling Green died at 4:38 p.m. Oct. 4, 2007 at Greenview Regional Hospital.

The Princeton native was a construction superintendent. He loved University of Kentucky basketball, NFL football, dogs and Barkley Lake. His pets were the late Solo and Rocky. He was a son of John L. Stroube and Betty Rowland Stroube of Bowling Green, who survive. He was preceded in death by grandparents, Paul and Violet Rowland and John and Delia Stroube.

Celebration of life is from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel. Cremation was chosen.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to the American Cancer Society, Greenwood Courtyard, 2425 Scottsville Rd, Ste. 123, Bowling Green, Ky 42104-4457

Other survivors include his wife, Brenda Hall Stroube; a brother, Brad Stroube of Bowling Green; a sister, Susan Nally and her husband, Bill, of Bowling Green; a nephews, Seth Stroube of Bowling Green; a niece, Gracie Nally of Bowling Green, and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Send Condolences