Key Concepts for Spiritual Growth

The messages to the seven churches have brought encouragement to God's people over the centuries. They assure us that God is intensely interested in the workings of His church. He knows all its challenges and is eager to provide counsel and precious promises to all who will listen.

NAMES OF GOD

F R I E N D

As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in His love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command.

How to Hear the Voice of God

Seek first:

Seeking God first is delighting yourself in the Lord.

Seeking God first is giving Him the first word and the last word.

Seeking God first is making sure His voice is the loudest voice in your life.

In the apostle Paul's words, "I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord." Then and only then will God speak to us in the language of desires. He'll change our desires, intensify our desires, and upload new desires within us. Those desires actually become spiritual compasses by which we navigate the will of God.
