"Take Me To The King"

Father,

Forever in our hearts,
always on our mind.
Together again we will be,
all in God's time.
Heaven gained another angel
the day you left.
Eternity promises
are much needed rest.
Rest now Dad,
we will be okay
because we carry you with us
every single day.

Love, Your Children

Uncle Gene,

I feel a special closeness to you, I always have and I guess it's because from the beginning you have been there for me. Encouraging me, listening to my troubles, and cheering me on along the way. I will miss your laughter, watching scary movies all night, getting kicked out. You can watch your Eagles now. It seems even more important to thank you and tell you how much you mean to me. I love you so much and I feel fortunate to have had you in my life. You will always be a part of me forever.

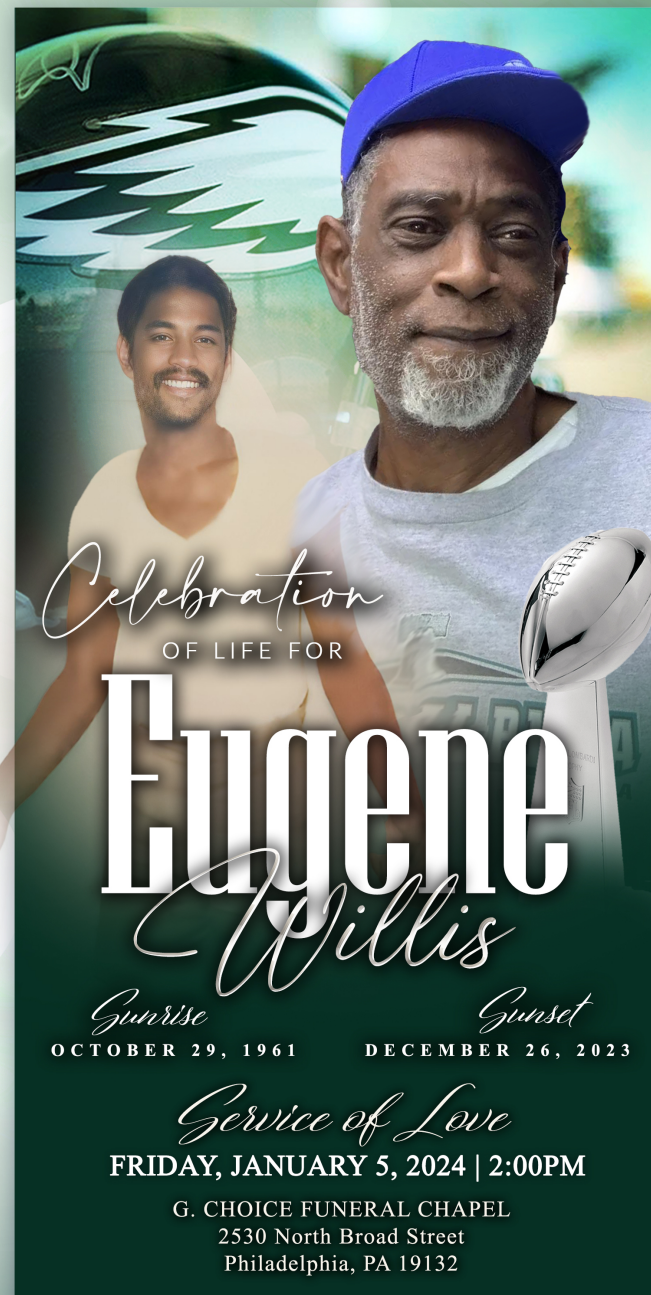

Love, Ronnaye

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, and kindness shown to us during this time of bereavement. May God continue to bless and keep you.

LOVED BEYOND WORDS. MISSED BEYOND MEASURE.

His Life Story

Our beloved, Eugene Willis, perished on Tuesday, December 26, 2023. Eugene was born on October 29, 1961 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Eugene was the youngest born son to the late Charles Dogan and Delores G. Peterson.

Eugene, affectionately known as "Gene" to family and friends, spent his formative years in West Philadelphia, PA with his family. Gene later relocated uptown West Oaklane, where he started his own family. Gene attended the Philadelphia public school system, Olney High School in 1977. Gene later went into the US Army reserve. He chose a career path of General Laborer before becoming ill.

Eugene was passionate about his family and he loved family gatherings. He loved sports, football (Eagles) and basketball (76ers).

To know Gene was to love him, and if you knew him you knew he was a big "sugar, honey, ice & tea talker". Gene loved being his self and loved those who accepted him for who he really was.

Eugene is survived by his four children, Eugene, Tamika, Erica, and Sharhonda also the daughter he elected to be her father Regina, his three sons-in-law, Michael, Quinton, and Cyrus; one daughter-in-law, Brooks; one sibling, Sabrina Scott; a host of nieces, nephews and cousins; childhood friends, Chucky, Greg, Wayne and his close friend, Terrence.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles Dogan and Delores G. Peterson, and his brother, Charles Willis.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
