

OBITUARY

John passed away Monday, August 12, 2024, in Cleburne. He was born August 25, 1945 in Granbury to Jimmie Lee and Josie (Bradley) Reichstetter. John, a man of the Christian faith, dedicated his career to Agriculture as a farm laborer. A fervent supporter of the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers, John had a passion for sports that brought joy to his life. Known for his sociable nature, he never hesitated to strike up a conversation with anyone, often captivating stories with those around him. John's good sense of humor, love for westerns such as Gunsmoke and Bonanza, as well as cowboy tales, added color to his character. Renowned for his generous spirit, John's willingness to lend a helping hand endeared him to many. Those who had the pleasure of knowing him will fondly remember his warmth and kindness, with a "heart as big as Texas." John will be dearly missed by all whose lives he touched.

Survivors include his sister, Shirley McMillen; best friend, T.D. Curlee; nephews, Billy Duvall and Hershel Duvall; nieces, Blenda Blevins, Glenda Bird, and Ashley Rios.

John was preceded in death by his parents, Jimmie and Josie Reichstetter; brothers, Leroy Reichstetter, Jimmie Wayne Reichstetter; and sister, Mary Jo Groom.

Cowboys Prayer

Our Most Gracious, Heavenly Father

We pause in the midst of this occasion to remember a cowboy...

As cowboys, Lord we don't ask for any special favors to draw around that chute, fighting horse, or the bull that we know we just can't ride or the steer that just won't lay.

But, Lord, we ask to live our lives in accordance of thy word that when we make our last ride that we know is inevitable to all of us to the place up there where the grass is green, lush and stir up high and where the water runs crystal clear and deep that you will tell us as we ride there, our entry fees are paid.

We ask these things in Christ name.

Amen
