

Lynette Kessel was born June 8, 1964 to Ronald and Mary Ann (Ridl) Kostelecky. She grew up on their family dairy farm. She attended school in South Heart and graduated from South Heart High School in 1982. On May 30, 1987, she was joined in marriage to Roger Kessel; they were blessed with two children Devon and Brittany. Lynette ran Fairfield Country Store for many years, until the store closed. She later worked for many years at Wal-Mart, where she enjoyed shopping for others. She loved her children dearly and was their greatest cheerleader. She was always there to listen and was the most kind and caring soul. She loved to read a good book and watch a good Hallmark movie. She loved everything coffee and enjoyed cappuccino day once a week. Her two granddaughters were the light of her life and she enjoyed spoiling and spending time with them. She enjoyed doing diamond art and any types of crafts with Olivia. She was always the first to volunteer to watch her granddaughters. She will be missed by so many. Lynette is survived by her husband Roger; son Devon; daughter Brittany (Shannon) Hendricks; two granddaughters Olivia and Zoey Hendricks; sister Lisa (Russ)Hendricks; and many brothers-in-laws and sisters-in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles. She was preceded in death by her parents, Ronald and Mary Ann Kostelecky; grandparents Laudie and Mildred Kostelecky, and Andrew and Dorothy Ridl; brother-in-law William Kessel; sisters-in-law Vinette Kessel and Joann Kessel.

I Never Saw Your Wings
By an Unknown Author
How is it that I never saw your wings when you were here with me?
When you closed your eyes and soared to the Heavens I could hear the faint flutter of you wings as you left.
Your body no longer on this side your spirit here eternally I see your halo shine.

I close my eyes
and see the multi-colored wings surround me in my saddest moments and my happiest times.

Mother my angel
God has given you your assignment always my mother forever my angel.

You fly into my dreams and when I am asleep
I feel your wings brush against my face wiping away the tears I shed since I can no longer hold you in my arms but in my heart.
You earned those wings dear mother and you will always be me angel eternal.
