

Play Park Leaders

Have a look at this guide to understand more about Play Park Leaders and what to expect

PLAY PARK LEADERS

A Play Park Leader is a passionate individual who takes on the responsibility of organizing and facilitating play sessions in their community. As a Play Park Leader, you will play a vital role in creating a safe and engaging environment for children to participate in structured play activities.

You will be the driving force behind fostering children's physical development, social connections, and overall well-being through the power of play.

ROLES

Your responsibilities include:

Organise volunteer support

Recruit and coordinate volunteers to support Play Parks sessions each week

Promote Play Parks in your community

Engage with local schools, community groups, and organizations to raise awareness

Lead and Facilitate

Familiarise yourself with Kids Collab weekly sessions and lead the one-hour play sessions with your volunteers

Collect feedback and ideas

Collect feedback and suggestions from parents and participants for continuous improvement.

TIME COMMITMENT

Here is a breakdown of what you would be expected to carry out in a week (4-5 hours)

- Post on social media to spread the word
- Try visit a school or two to share information
- Access the Play Leaders support groups to get ideas and check in
- Coordinate your volunteers to make sure you have enough help for the week's session
- Access the Play Parks Lesson Planner for the games and activities of the week
- Host a fun and engaging session with your volunteers

HOW AM I SUPPORTED?

Training

You will receive comprehensive training on utilizing the Kids Collab platform, Play Parks planner, and a step-by-step process for successfully implementing Play Parks in your community

Support Group

Play Park leaders have access to a closed community support group, with fellow leaders and the Kids Collab team, fostering a collaborative space for assistance, questions, and the sharing of ideas.

Kids Collab Platform

Play Park leaders have exclusive access to the six-month Play Park planner, which includes weekly session plans supported by a wide range of resources available on the Kids Collab platform

Volunteers

Play Park leaders receive valuable support from dedicated volunteers within the community, who collaborate with them to run engaging and enriching weekly sessions.
