LIFE'S JOURNEY
Barrington Wayne Morgan
"Barry"

Barrington Wayne Morgan was born on September 2, 1981, to his parents, Ferron and Marshal Morgan in Denver, Colorado.

Barry's journey through life led him to various endeavors and accomplishments. After graduating from Rangeview High School in 1999, he continued his education at Community College of Aurora, where he obtained an Associate Degree. It was during these formative years that Barry's passion for creativity began to flourish. Drawing and producing rap lyrics became his outlets for self-expression.

In addition to his pursuit of education, Barry also embarked on a career in marketing and excelled to the position of supervisor. His dedication and work ethic were commendable, leaving an indelible mark on those he collaborated with.

Barry had a magnetic personality and was cherished by all who knew him. His beautiful green eyes were a reflection of the vibrant spirit within him. He had a mischievous sense of humor and delighted in playing jokes on others. Rap music and movies were not only his favorite pastimes but also sources of inspiration that fueled his creative endeavors.

Among Barry's proudest accomplishments was the production of his own rap CD. It was a testament to his determination and talent as well as a profound moment of fulfillment in his life. The CD stands as a creative legacy for future generations to appreciate and admire.

As much as Barry enjoyed pursuing his passions, he held something even dearer to his heart - his loved ones. He found immense joy in spending time with family and friends, creating countless cherished memories along the way.

Barry's departure has left a void in the lives of those he touched. Yet, it is through the memories we shared with him that he will forever stay alive in our hearts. Let us remember Barry Wayne Morgan as a vibrant soul who brought laughter, joy, and inspiration into our lives. Those of us who were close to Barry know that he usually displayed a happy demeanor. But since birth, he faced many challenges. Some he was able to overcome. Others he was not. However, Barry was brave and ALWAYS put up a mighty battle. As an infant, he contracted meningitis which resulted in serious learning disabilities. He struggled in school, but he persevered and graduated High School on time. Even received a scholarship to go on to college. Yet another hurdle. In 2002, Barry had a severe break and was diagnosed with schizophrenia.

Mental illness was a long dark valley for Barry for more than 20 years. He heard the voices. He saw terrifying images. Yes, he had the suicidal wishes. Then he and I would pray together. Calmness would come for a little while or til his meds wore off.

Barry, my Son, my Buddy, you are now finally in the arms of God where you can rest in peace.

Barry will be deeply missed by his surviving family, including his parents, Marshal M. and Ferron Morgan, I; his brother Ferron (Alicia) Morgan, II; his nieces, Jasiah Morgan and Ellie Morgan; and his aunt, Dr. Sylvia Lowe. He also leaves behind numerous cousins, other relatives, and dear friends who were touched by his kindness and warmth.

"When I think of you, I think of everything 10 feet tall you were Wholehearted, and intentional, so full of talent and marvelous like a beautiful graffiti wall.

Passionate, genuine and wise, a heart of gold and a smile that could ease the most difficult times.

A gentle Giant , so Strong and Brave. I remember always thinking I wanna be just like you one day.

You will always be a remarkable Man, a Son ,a Brother, an Artist and above all else a child in Gods hands.

With Eyes so beautiful and deep , A soul so loving and sweet. Whenever there was a time to spread knowledge you were the right one to speak.

Your essence alone was so comforting and warm , each hug and your wholesome laughter was always the norm.

Now we've come to a time where we must accept your in a better place. And thank the Most High for being in control, and for his loving grace we'll never forget the wonderful person you were or the many great things you've done all the many loving memories of you will forever live on.

So This is not the end, this only where we begin, and we won't say goodbye or so long, here's where we live right and do right, so we may all be together in the Kingdom of Heaven , right where we all belong"
