When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

LOVED BEYOND WORDS. MISSED BEYOND MEASURE.

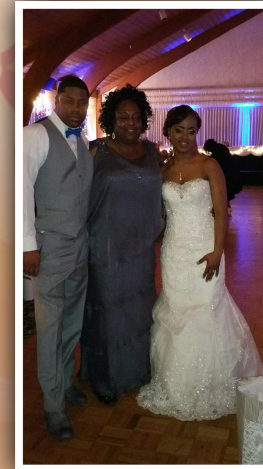

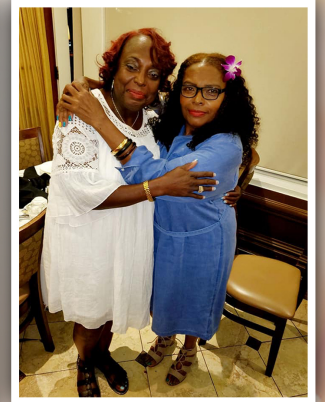

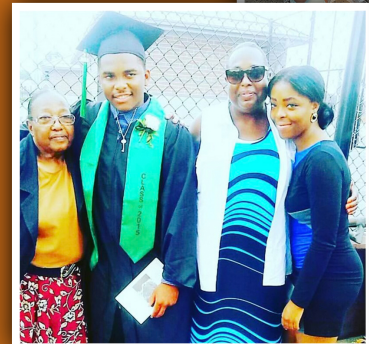

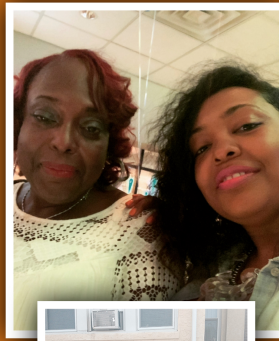

Her Story

Etonia Denise Person was born on June 1, 1955, in Philadelphia, PA. Etonia was called "Toni" by family and friends. She was born to her mother, Evangelist Frances Person and late father Freeman. Etonia was educated in the Philadelphia school district and devoted her career to the field of nursing and to bettering the lives of children by being a foster parent for many years. She was the mother to Shawn, Antone, Zeradian, Rashad, Davida, Esheem, Leon, Leah, and India; two daughters-in-law, Guirlande and Keisha; and one son-in-law, Jamir. She was preceded in death by her brother, Gary and leaves to cherish her memory: mother Frances; grandchildren, Shawn, Madisyn, Zion, Nafee (Iil Antone), Isaiah, Jabril, Zair, Zamir, Amirah, Antone, London, Mariah, Jonah, Amayah, Samiyah; one great grandchild, Sincere; sister, Darla; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

Etonia (Toni) Person was a remarkable person. She lived life to the fullest. She was a great daughter, friend and an amazing mother to her children. Toni was a hard worker and would do anything to put a smile on the faces of those she loved. Toni was resilient, independent, motivated, beautiful, strong, and genuine. She has helped so many people over the years and would give her shirt off her back and last dollar to make sure the people she cared about was okay. The friendships she had will stand the test of time.

Toni considered everyone as family and holidays, birthdays, and cookouts were very special to her. She was the life of the party and always stayed dressed to impress. Her fashion sense was classic and her appearance was always up to par. Toni was a blessing and left her mark on many people. The love she had for her family was unmatched. Toni always kept her head up and never gave up. She left little pieces of her in everyone she loved. Toni has gained her wings and halo. She will never be forgotten, Her memory will live on in our hearts forever.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
