

REMEMBERING DICK...

Richard "Dick" Ebert, 74, passed away at his home in Rushford, MN on Saturday August 10, 2024.

Dick was born in a car on the way to the hospital in 1950, the son of Lloyd and Mavis Ebert. That was just the beginning of his adventures. He grew up on a farm outside of Blooming Prairie, MN. Dick was drafted and served in Vietnam. When he returned, he attended tech school and spent many years working at EF Johnson in Waseca, MN before moving to what was then Midwest Wireless, now Verizon. He retired in 2015.

Along the way, he visited 49 states and even more countries. All that traveling could be a bit much, but he enjoyed sharing his experiences with friends and family. His favorite travel was "up north" where he could often be found fishing, camping, canoeing, and sharing food and drinks with anyone and everyone.

Dick is survived by his daughter, Lisa, his brother, Larry, and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by both parents, as well as his two sisters, Linda and Sandra.

"WHEN I'M GONE"

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best
