TO OUR BROTHER

*A brother can never be parted
Precious memories never die
I don't know what I'm going to do,
I'm always missing you.
You left without Warning.
Gone so fast.
Now all we have are memories
Of our past.
Words unspoken -
Regrets and wishes are probably there too,
But in our heart are memories of you.
You are loved by so many.
You might not have known,
you left without saying goodbye,
our hearts will never be whole.
but just remember, as you began to fly
A brother can never be parted
Precious memories never die .*

Love, Rah Rah, Yay Yay, Ashley and Dominique

IN APPRECIATION

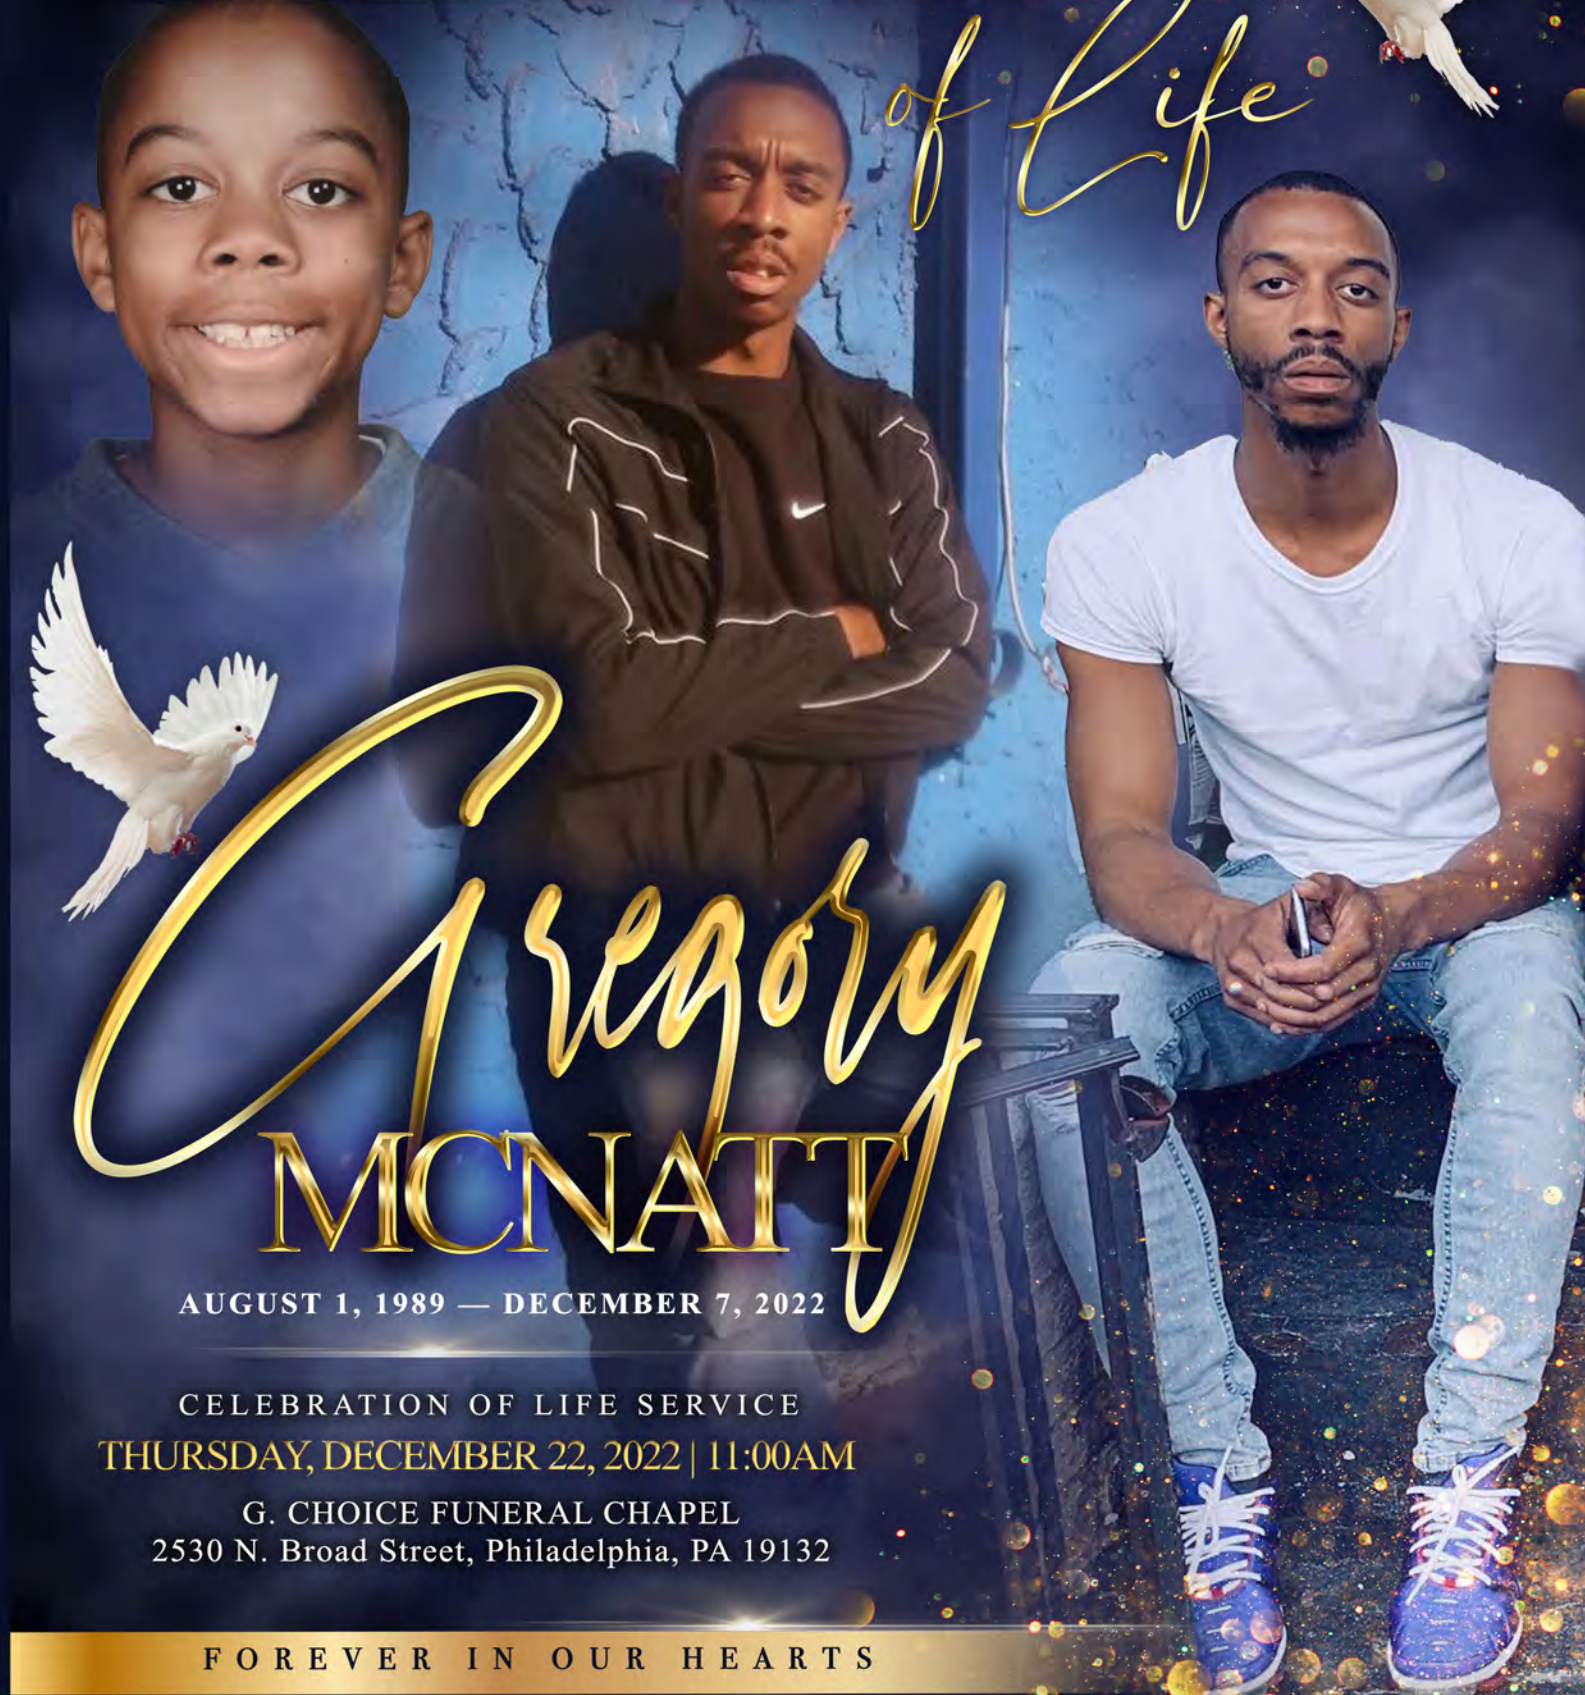

Nothing is more difficult than saying good-bye to a loved one, but the support shown to our family makes us forever grateful for all the acts of love, prayers, visits, calls sympathy cards and condolences to help us through this difficult time.

We appreciate your kindness.
May God continue to bless you and keep you in his care

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Bobo's STORY

On August 1, 1989, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Gregory Thomas McNatt Jr. entered the world as the first child of Jacinda McNatt and Gregory McNatt. He passed away December 7, 2022 so suddenly at the age of 33.

Gregory received his education in the Philadelphia School district. He was employed by various labor unions.

He was passionate about painting and art, entering art competitions in his free time. He also took great pleasure in collecting antique cards.

Although Gregory (Bobo as he was affectionately called), was the first born son, he was the one who we all teased about that would never leave his dad's side. As Gregory Sr.'s other four children went on to conquer life and start families, Bobo stayed behind to look over his father.

Gregory's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by him understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives. His poker face, laid back personality, but above all his gentle protective heart over his father and family. Bobo will truly be missed.

Gregory Jr. was preceded in death by his mother, Jacinda McNatt; grandmother, Theresa Butler; and two cousins, Tiyon and Raymond.

Gregory Jr. leaves to forever cherish in memories: his father, Gregory McNatt Sr.; two brothers, Gregory James and Gregory Maurice; two sisters - Ashley and Dominique; six nephews, Josiah, Yosef, Jeriah, Djoser, Joshua and John; two nieces, Asherah and Dejanay; one great niece, Diore; one brother-in-law, Joshua; grandfather, James McNatt; a special aunt, Elizabeth; a special family friend, Carlita; along with a host of beloved cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

THE FAMILY

MY FIRST BORN SON

*I only have a picture now,
A frozen piece of time,
To remind me of how it was
When you were here and mine.
I see your smiling eyes
Each morning when I wake.
How much I miss you being here,
Why did you go away?
The ache is deep inside my heart
And never goes away.
The angels came and took you,
That really wasn't fair.
They took my first born son
My future life, my heir.
If only they had asked me
If I would take your place.
I would have done so willingly,
Leaving you this world to grace.
How much I miss you being here,
I miss you walking me to the bus,
Grabbing my work bag,
Bobo my first born son,
How I miss you so much.
I really cannot say.
The ache is deep inside my heart
And never goes away.*

Love, Dad
