

OBITUARY

Jennifer "Jennie" Lee York, a beloved figure known for her radiant smile and unwavering warmth, passed away on December 12, 2024, in Fort Worth, Texas. Born on April 7, 1962, in Marietta, Georgia, Jennie's vibrant spirit touched the lives of everyone she encountered throughout her journey. She was not just a mother but a best friend to her children, who cherished her deeply.

Jennie is survived by her devoted spouse, Steven York. Together, they crafted a life filled with love and laughter. Her legacy continues through her children: Airlia York, Celeste York, Jelisha York, Orian York, Amereth Martin and her spouse Kevin, Joshu York, Marilyn Nguyen, and Brea Mangrum. Jennie's grandchildren-Allora Bratcher, Evan Elizabeth, Isaiah York, Aiden Stephens, Jahmari Lindsey, Jionni, Javonni, Kyler Martin, Jaden Sterling, Lilyann York, and Theo York-were the joy of her life, and she always made time to illuminate their days with her infectious happiness. Jennie was also a loving sister to Leslie Burns, Michael Reagor, and John Reagor, who will forever hold dear the memories they shared. Her profound sense of community extended to all who knew her, as she was a source of joy and positivity, making everyone around her happy.

She now joins her parents, Leslie Wayne and Maude La Vern Young Reagor, and her grandchild, Corvin Stephens, in eternal rest. Jennie also held a special place in her heart for her mother-in-law, Dorothy N. Rogers, who has preceded her in death.

As we celebrate the life of Jennie York, we remember her as a beacon of light, whose love and laughter will live on in the hearts and memories of her family and friends. She will be profoundly missed but never forgotten.

Celebrating the Life of

Jennifer Lee York

*When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, be happy
that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
but now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a little while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart,
you'll hear All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and
"welcome home."*
