Arlene Mae Schmidt was born on May 30, 1930 to John and Hattie Breitzkreutz on the family farm. She was the third of three children, joining her sister Helen and brother Marvin. Arlene was baptized and confirmed at Emmaus Lutheran Church. She attended Aden country school and graduated from Tripp High School in 1948. After graduation, she worked for Eastman Drugstore for several years.

On March 16, 1952, she was united in marriage to Donald Schmidt. They lived in Tripp for most of their lives raising their four children: Janet, Mary, Bob, and David. In 1968 she started working at the Good Samaritan Society Tripp as a nurse's aide and then as the restorative aide. She retired on September 6, 1998 after 30 years. She enjoyed reading, puzzles, gardening, canning, traveling, and spending time with family. She was happiest baking cookies and caramel rolls for her grandchildren. Holidays were important to her, and she always wanted all of her family there.
