The Obituary

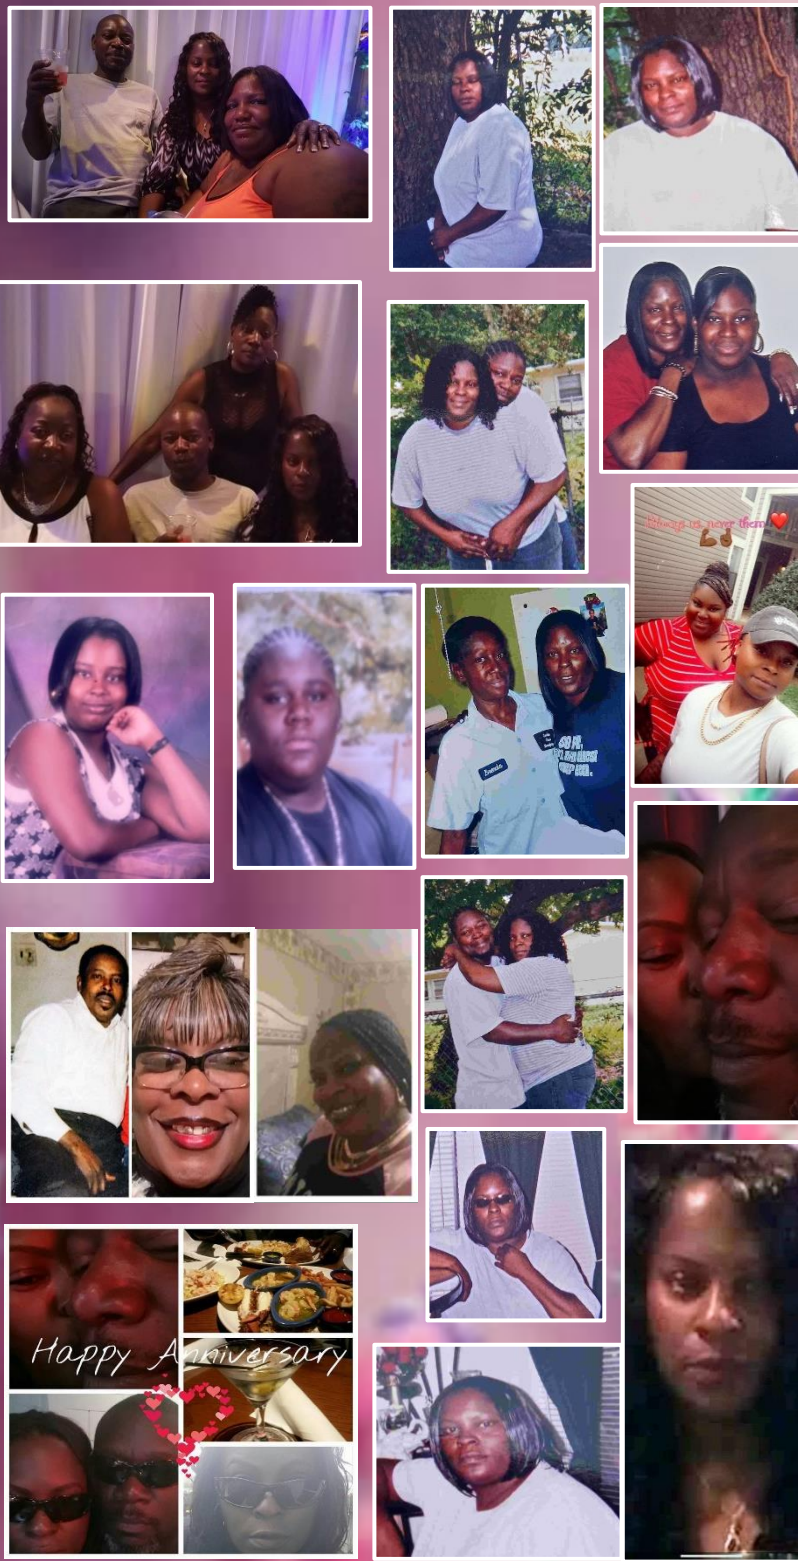

Sherri McArthur Clemmons, daughter of Al Smith McArthur and Nancy Woodard McArthur, was born August 15, 1967 in Wilson, North Carolina. Her earthly journey peacefully ended on Sunday, September 4, 2022. Along with her father she was preceded in death by her brother, Jimmie Clemmons, nephew, Jamel Clemmons and her mother-in-law, Brenda Dublin. Sherri was reared in Queens, New York where she received her formative education from the Queens public School System. She received her diploma from New Dorp High School Staten Island, New York. Realizing the importance of education, she extended her studies and earned a Certified Nurses' Assistant Certificate. A dedicated worker, Sherri worked Private Duty, Mental Health Counselor for children. She loved her work and always made certain that the needs of those placed in her care were taken care of.

A phenomenal woman who did all things well. Adored, admired, and respected by all who knew her. Sherri loved life and the many pleasures she received from her family, friends, her church, and her work. Always a smile and an encouraging word to those she knew and those she met. Caring to develop a loving and nurturing home environment, she loved her family and delighted in the special times she shared with each one, always made certain that their needs were taken care of. A great cook, who loved to cook, dance and sing. Sherri was a woman filled with the spirit of her Christ, for she loved the Lord with her whole heart and put Him first above everything. A servant leader, she was a member of Without Walls Church Ministries of Florida where she worshipped, served, and carried out the spirit of God's word. A dear beloved heart is now at rest to always be remembered with love by those she loved and those who loved her.

Precious memories are forever cherished by her husband, Ernest Clemmons; one daughter, Laterrria McArthur; one son, Ernest Clemmons, Jr.; her mother, Nancy Woodard McArthur; sisters, Terri Bynum, her twin, Jacqueline Robinson, Catherine Clemmons, and Wanda Coleman of Wilson, NC; one brother, Elgin McArthur; aunts, Bessie Handy, Betty J. Jackson (Donald) of Wilson, NC, Betsy Hardy of Prince George, VA, Inez Clemmons (Claude), Tina George, Carrie Clemmons, Tracy Clemmons of Tampa, FL; uncles, Dennis Woodard, Douglas Clemmons, Ollie Clemmons of Wilson, NC, Franklin Bo Clemmons of Atlanta, GA, and Vince Dublin (Val); nieces, Tatayana Kelley, Diamond Kelley, Rolanda Clemmons, Tasha Clemmons, Shanyelle Clemmons, Nikita Barnes, a god daughter; nephews, Darryl Barnes, Carman Coleman, Tommy Coleman, Jr., and Jimmie Lee Clemmons Jr; a host of other relatives and friends.

*I Have a Place in Heaven
Please don't sing sad songs for me
Forget your grief and tears
For I am in a perfect place
Away from pain and fears
It's far away from worry
And hurt and want and pride.*

*I have a place in Heaven
With the Master at my side
My life on earth was very good
As earthly life can go
But paradise is so much more
Than anyone can know
My heart is filled with happiness
And sweet rejoicing too
To walk with God is perfect peace
A joy forever new.*

The Family

To the Family

It appears that nothing surpasses
All your grief and despair
But God is a mighty refuge
And your loved one is in His care
