

SQUASH BC - POSITION DESCRIPTION

CANADA WINTER GAMES COACH & MANAGER

Squash BC is seeking two passionate and dedicated individuals to lead Team BC's Squash team at the upcoming 2023 Canada Winter Games. Successful candidates will work closely with key stakeholders to select and train Team BC in preparation for the 2023 Canada Winter Games, taking place February 18 - March 5, 2023 in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

To best serve our athletes, we are first looking for two candidates (one male and one female) who would fit the requirements for Canada Winter Games Coach (below). If one of the two selected candidates does not meet the coaching certification requirements, they can be designated as Canada Winter Games Manager.

Canada Winter Games Coach - Requirements

- Actively Certified at the Provincial Coach level, as of September 30, 2022 (certification must stay active through the CWG dates)
 - Candidates not currently certified at the Provincial Coach level should provide a plan for completing their certification by this date in their application
- Completed all Squash BC Safe Sport Requirements for coaches (outlined here: www.squashbc.com/w/about-us/safe-sport/safe-sport-requirements). Requirements must be completed before the first scheduled CWG training session.
- 19 years of age and older, as of September 30, 2022
- Demonstrated experience training, developing, and motivating high performance junior squash athletes
- Experience coaching in a team environment

Canada Winter Games Manager - Requirements

- Completed all Squash BC Safe Sport Requirements for coaches (outlined here: www.squashbc.com/w/about-us/safe-sport/safe-sport-requirements). Requirements must be completed before the first scheduled CWG training session.
- 19 years of age and older, as of September 30, 2022
- Experience with high performance junior squash athletes
- Experience working in a team environment

Responsibilities

- Lead, travel with, and supervise the Squash BC team athletes at the 2023 Canada Winter Games (February 18 - March 5, 2023 in Charlottetown, PEI)
- Represent Squash BC in a professional manner at all times before and during the event
- Lead and/or support team training sessions
- Sit on the Squash BC Canada Winter Games Task Force
- Participate in the athlete selection criteria creation and the athlete selection process

Compensation

- The two coaches or the one coach and one manager will each receive an honorarium from Squash BC
- Coaches will also be compensated hourly for agreed upon team training sessions. Hourly rate and training session schedule will be determined
- Associated travel expenses will be reimbursed
- Squash BC team apparel will be provided

Application Instructions

Interested candidates should submit an application to Colin Latchford, Squash BC Executive Director by email at executivedirector@squashbc.com by Friday, February 25, 2022 at 5:00 PM.

About Squash BC

Squash BC is a non-profit organization providing leadership and direction for the growth and development of the sport of squash in BC. Committed to collaboration and community, Squash BC channels the intensity and passion for the sport into opportunities for squash players of today and tomorrow. Through driving awareness and advocacy inside and outside the squash court, Squash BC's goals are to provide leadership in promoting the sport, provide access to funding, and enable lasting connections for its members across the province in a focused effort to grow participation.

About the 2023 Canada Winter Games

From: www.2023canadagames.ca/

As a province known for its hospitality, we're excited to welcome the 2023 Canada Winter Games to Prince Edward Island, on the traditional and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq People. From February 18 to March 5, the Games will bring together 3,600 athletes, managers and coaches, across 20 different sports, for the largest multi-sport event in the country.

We're looking forward to celebrating the very best in Canadian sports and sharing our unique Island spirit with the entire nation. Together, we'll spark greatness and send waves out from every shore. From athletes and coaches to volunteers and fans, the 2023 Games will make every Canadian an Islander.