Jeremiah's STORY

Jeremiah LaShae Quashawn Cannady was born on August 17, 1995, in Denver, Colorado, to his parents, Rodney Young and Chaka Cannady. He was the first-born child raised surrounded by his brothers, Mister Tyrone Owens and Sir Joseph Owens, and three beloved sisters. As a child, Jeremiah was a fun-loving joker who loved to eat. He liked playing Pee Wee ball, weightlifting, and being around his family. He loved riding in his Uncle John's truck on road trips; it blessed him with opportunities he might not have otherwise had. Jeremiah matriculated through the Denver Public System, attending SOAR Academy.

Jeremiah was the proud father of Jerimiah Amon and Ciani Luna. They were the apple of his eye, and he wanted nothing but the best for them. His best friends, Trevon, Marquan, Malik, Brandon, and Shahid, will always remember him being there when their children were born. That's the kind of man he was, always there when you needed him (even when you didn't). They shared a bond that will never be broken. He met his companion Saprea Gregory in 2019, with whom he spent many happy times in the past few years.

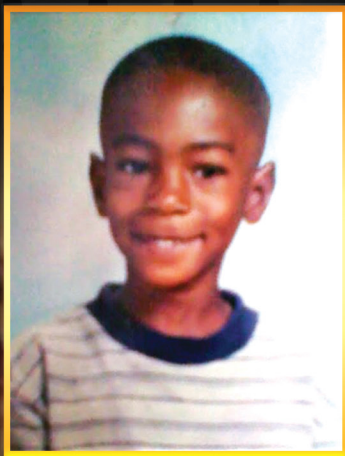

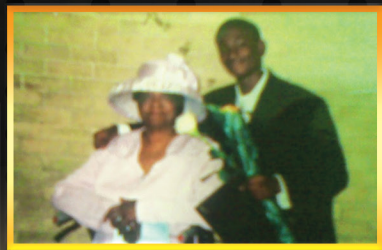

By profession, Jeremiah worked as a roofer with Colorado Heart Scrapers. Because of his kind spirit and exceptional work ethic, his co-workers became just like family. They will all miss his jokes and heart-to-heart talks.

Jeremiah was a member of Evangelist Temple Church under the leadership of the late Supt. J.L. Washington. He always sat next to Mother Washington during service so she could keep him in line.

Jeremiah spent his spare time with his kids, family, friends, and co-workers. He touched the hearts of everyone he met. To know Jeremiah was to love him, and he will be greatly missed.

Jeremiah was preceded in death by his grandparents, Carl and Mervine Cannady.

Jeremiah met his Savior and took Him by the hand on June 22, 2022. Those left to cherish his memory and live his legacy include his parents, Chaka (Rodney) Young; his children, Jerimiah Amon Cannady and Ciani Luna Cannady; his brothers, Mister Tyrone Owens and Sir Joseph Owens; three beloved sisters; uncles, Jermaine Cannady, Pastor Chester (Cynthia) Maxwell, and John (Elvia) Maxwell; godparents, Marisa, Derrick, Bea, and Dundee; special aunt, Tara Washington-Everette; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many, many friends.

To My Son,

It's sometimes hard to know why some things happen as they do for so much joy and happiness was centered around you

It seems so hard to comprehend that you're no longer here but all the happy memories will help to keep you near
Of all the special gifts in life however great or small to have you as my son was the greatest gift of all

A special time, a special face
A special Son I can't replace

You're thought about with pride, my Son with each mention of your name death cannot change a single thing the love will always remain.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
That anyone could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part
