

Consent to Use Photographs

To the Parent/Legal Guardian/Caregiver:

In the interest of safety and security, Olympia Christian School requires parent permission for the publishing of students' names or photographs on our website, videos, and other promotional materials. We sometimes photograph students for promotional and documentary purposes. These images may appear in our printed publications, on video, on our website, or on all three. To comply with the Data Protection Act of 1998, your permission is required before we take any photographs or recordings. Please answer the questions below, then sign and date the form where shown.

Please indicate your wishes by checking () the relevant space:
