

In loving memory of

Morris Sherman Jr.

February 13, 2024

11:30 am

Second Mount Pleasant Baptist Church

14022 Coffee Bluff Rd,

Savannah, GA 31419

Obituary

In Loving Memory of Morris "Barney" Sherman Jr.
December 28, 1952 – February 2, 2024

Morris and Ruth (Scott) Sherman in Savannah, Georgia and attended Haven Home Elementary School and Richard Arnold High School before enlisting in the United State Army.

Morris attended Basic Training in Fort Jackson, South Carolina. Upon completion, he continued Advanced Individual Training as a Motor Transport Operator at Fort Lewis, Washington. Mr. Sherman was then assigned to Fort Wainwright, Alaska and Seoul Korea where he met his future wife Kyong Hui (Jeanne). While stationed in Seoul Korea, he had many amazing stories of his time there. He wrote, called home, and told his family of the fun filled experiences that he encountered as he embraced the food and landscapes. Upon returning from Korea, he was stationed at Fort Hood in Killeen, Texas where he was separated from active duty and the US Army Reserves. Ultimately he was recognized for his honorable service with a National Defense Service Medal, Army Driver and Mechanics Badge, Army Reserve Components, Achievement Medal, and Expert Rifle Medal.

After proudly serving in the army, as a civilian he was employed as truck driver for Centex, a concrete company in Killeen, Texas. After relocating back to Savannah, GA, he was employed as a truck driver for local concrete company, but due a serious trucking accident, he chose to change his career path and set his goal to work at Savannah School of Art Design as a laborer, and rose up the ranks to a foreman until his health declined and could no longer work full-time because his leg amputation.

Family Who Went Before

Morris Sherman Jr., is preceded in death by his parents Morris Sherman, Sr. and Ruth Scott Sherman as well as his second son Johnathan Carl Sherman.

Family He Left Behind

Morris leaves behind a legacy of love and resilience, survived by Kyong Hui (Jeanne) Sherman (wife) of 47 years. Morris Sherman III and Michael Sherman (sons); Kathy Manokey (sister), Antionette Manokey (niece), Kimora, Thessalonia, Jacob, Jeremiah, Cameron (grandchildren), Zoe (grand-niece). He also leaves behind Christy Sherman (daughter-in-law); Cathy, Alexia, and Anisha (mothers of his grandchildren); Mable Funches, John Spaulding, Ida Durrant, Janice Scott, Gail Scott, and Audrey Scott (cousins). He is remembered fondly by numerous close relatives, cousins, and lifelong friends in the White Bluff Community, Savannah GA, and Charleston SC. Their names are too many to list, but they will never be forgotten as family.

Though he may no longer walk among us, his spirit will live on in the memories we shared and the love he bestowed upon us all. Rest in eternal peace, dear Morris, as your legacy continues to inspire us all. You will be dearly missed but never forgotten, forever watching over us with love and warmth.

"And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

Revelations 21:4

Acknowledgements

Words could never expression our family appreciation of your support during Barney's illnesses, your visits to the nursing home, your constant checking on him, bring him meals to house, so many acts of kindness from the community. Again, thank you for your support and generosity during this time we are most grateful for the gift of friends, church and community members like you, who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

Please join us for a repass following services

*Professional services entrusted to
Adams Funeral Home
510 Stephenson Avenue Savannah, GA 31406*