Reflections of Life

January 17, 1994 ~ October 24, 2021

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Psalms 23:1-6 KJV

Myesha Rochelle Davis was born on January 17, 1994 in Baton Rouge, LA to Ms. Shameka Davis and Mr. Walter Servick. Myesha graduated from Scotlandville Magnet High School in 2012. Just recently she went back to school and earned her micro blading certificate as her latest adventure.

Myesha loved life, family and friends. She had a loving and caring personality with a smile that would light up any room that she entered. That bubbly personality always came with jokes and laughter that only she could bring. Her compassion towards the ones she loved made her a confidant and safe haven to many, while closely securing their secrets. You just had to be ready for her response or what she might say because sometimes the filter was not on. Being full of God's joy also made her kind hearted and a giving person. Many of those who she held closely knew she would bless you and give you her last if you needed it.

Myesha's greatest accomplishment in life was the birth of her children. Being a great mother was at the top of her list, when it came to her life's accomplishments and goals. Myesha worked here to provide her children with security and spoil them with all the love she had to give. She kept her children in numerous activities and made sure she was there to support them in every way.

Myesha passed away peacefully on October 24, 2021 at the age of twenty-seven. She was preceded in death by: her son, Joshua Collins Jr.; father, Walter Servick; great grandfathers, Eugene Prestley Sr. & Trent Prestley; nephew, Donovan Davis, and uncle, Malcolm Edwards. Myesha leaves to cherish her memories her children: Kyrie, Jalen, Kaizen & Khyla Mackie; her mother Shameka Davis; grandparents: Helen (Larry) Coleman & Eugene Prestley; two sisters: Trincia (Kendrick) Ricks & Geraldnica Morrison; two brothers: Joshua Davis & Gerald Morrison; six aunts: Tiffany Davis, Carla Alexander, Fallon Alexander, Dominique Prestley, Ciera Perkins & Tiera Perkins; five uncles: Jermaine & Jeremy Davis, Carl Alexander, Eric Prestley and Micheal Johnson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles.

To My Sister

I'll always love and adore you. You were here waiting to be my friend before I even knew what a friend was. You were always one call away as though I was for you. I apologize for the trauma you went through, although some things may never know. I appreciate the times we shared and will forever cherish them. God has called you home and I'm still for strength to cope. To look in your kids faces and see the smiles across them, for that I know the sun will shine again tomorrow. I hope Momo Sylvia and your dad was waiting to greet you. Sleep beautiful from your baby sister.

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see, if the sun should rise and you find your eyes all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
while thinking of many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me as much as I love you, and each time that you think of time me, I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think were far apart for every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart.

Love Always

To my other half my better half I'm grateful for all the time that we spent, the laughs we've had,
and the love we still share. You've always been my protector, my support system and my strength. You've been my eyes, my ears and my stylist. You always told me that as long as I got you I didn't need anybody else. You honored your word until you took your last breath. You were hard on me because you said you seen the greatness in me. Now its my turn to honor you by making you proud. You grew so much and taught me everything you knew in your last days. I cherish every moment and every lesson that you taught me to help me become the woman I am today. You said we'd be the oldest living twins in the world still arguing and as long as I'm here sister I promise to keep you alive by honoring your word. I love you with all my heart always have and always will until we meet again.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Matthew 5:4(ESV)

If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane.
We would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye,
you were gone before we knew, it and only God knows why.
Our heart still aches with sadness and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you, no one can ever know.
But now we know you want us to mourn for you no more,
to remember all the happy times life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten, we pledge to you today a hollowed place within our heart is where you will always stay.

Love your children,
Kyrie, Jalen, Kaizen and Khyla
