

Terril Band, 66 of Smiths Grove died Sunday, April 5, 2015 at the Hospice House of Southern Kentucky.

The Cleveland, Ohio native was a son of the late Jordan C. and Alice Glickson Band. He was an information technology consultant, a member of Temple Am Shalom in Bowling Green, the Jewish Federation and Epilepsy Foundation, New Salem Masonic Lodge #462 and an avid Bridge player.

His survivors include his wife, Linda Band; two sisters, Stefanie Allweiss (Mickey) and Claudia McCord (John) five nieces, Erin Allweiss, Hallie Allweiss Metcalf (Spencer), Marissa Allweiss, Lindsay McCord, Kelly McCord; Several cousins and caregiver, Bradford K. Norris.

Funeral service will be 1:00 pm Friday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Fairview Cemetery (Brownsville). Visitation will be 4:00-8:00 p.m. Thursday with Masonic service at 7:00 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

Family request in lieu of flowers donations be made to Hospice House, the Jewish Federation, Comfort Keepers, New Salem Masonic Lodge #462 or Temple Am Shalom in Bowling Green.

Shiva will be held at Brian Carson's home at 901 Magnolia Ave., Bowling Green, KY 42101 beginning at 7:00 p.m. Friday for three days.

Send Condolences