

Grandpa Doesn't Care

My ice cream dripped on his good pants,
But Grandpa doesn't care.

His fishing tackle's tangled up, his rod is "who knows where."

I lost his keys in the garage. I've made a mess in there.
I'm always getting into things, but Grandpa doesn't care.
I help him in the garden 'cause we're really quite a pair.

I pull the plants out with the weeds,
But Grandpa doesn't care.

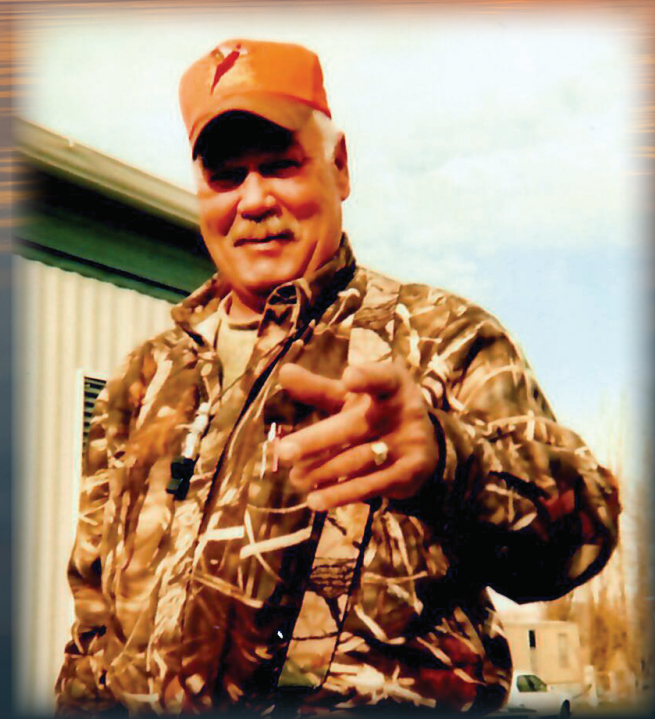

When I am grown, and on my own,
I won't forget the love I got
When Grandpa didn't care.

Mark Stephen Campbell

"Horse"

1953 - 2019

Mark Campbell, 65, Mandan, died unexpectedly on January 3, 2019, at Sanford Hospital, Bismarck.

Mark was born May 9, 1953, in Breckenridge, MN to Stephen W. and Marilyn (Fleischauer) Campbell. He was raised and educated in Fairmount, ND. Mark attended Joseph's School of Hair Design in Bismarck. He married Susan Faye Schaan in Minot, and they had two sons together, Stephen J. and William "Billy". They made their home in Surrey, ND. Mark drove truck for Keebler for 35 years, mostly in ND, MT, and SD. On August 3, 1990, Mark married Shirley Berland at VanHook. They lived at VanHook in the summers and Mandan during the winter. Mark loved spending time with his sons and grand kids. He loved the outdoors, especially hunting and fishing. A good conversation, giving grief to his friends and family, and just BS'ing was something Mark enjoyed. Time spent at the lake with his wife, Shirley, was truly one of Mark's greatest pleasures. A loving husband, dad, and grandpa, Mark will be missed by those who knew and loved him.

Blessed to have shared his life is his wife of 28 years, Shirley Campbell, Mandan; his father, Stephen W. Campbell, Fairmount; two sons, Stephen (Cheryl) Campbell, Fairmount, ND and Billy (Brittney) Campbell, VanHook; five grandchildren, Gabriel, Liberty, Liam, Enslee and Elcee; two brothers, Jeff (Mary Lue) Campbell, Fargo and Tim (Kelli) Campbell, Fairmount.

Mark was preceded in death by his mother, Marilyn.
