

Marietta Montgomery was born on October 15, 1937, in Headrick to GW and Tommie Ruth (Willis) Williams. She attended school at Duke before graduating from Martha with the Class of 1957. Marietta married Dale Montgomery on August 4, 1957, at her grandfather's farm between Altus and Duke. She and Dale shared 49 years together before his death in 2005. Marietta was the founding owner/operator of Altus Petal Pushers, sharing her love for flowers and beautiful floral masterpieces with many. She enjoyed cooking, crocheting, sewing, listening to country music – especially Alan Jackson, and volunteering to organize and cook church meals. She was a dedicated member of the Elm and Hudson Church of Christ in Altus. Marietta was 'grandma' to many.

Her husband, Dale; parents, GW and Tommie; daughter, Mona McDow; daughter-in-law, Tracy Montgomery; granddaughter, Jill Guffy; and siblings, TE "Buck" Williams, Judy Bennight, and Sue Marsh preceded her in death. Those left to honor Marietta's memory are her son, Monty Montgomery and wife, Belinda; son-in-law, Randy McDow; grandchildren, Timothy McDow and wife, Patricia, Brenna Byers and husband, Ian, Dale Montgomery and wife, Brittany, and Chelsea Lake and husband, "Chunk" Justin Lake; great grandchildren, Austin McDow, Waylin McDow, Logan McDow, Levi Byers, Braelyn Pfeiffer, and Theodore Lake; sister, Jane Breeding; and special friends, Kristi and Eddie Williamson and family; along with many nieces, nephews, and friends.

“Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.”

– I Corinthians 13:4-14 KJV
