

Psalm 23

¹ The LORD is my shepherd: I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

To Everything There is a Season

¹To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

²A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

³A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

⁴A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

⁵A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

⁶A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

⁷A time to rend and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

⁸A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Scealy Mae Pender Hooker was the 4th and final child of the late Willie Joe Pender born October 3, 1947 in Blackshear, Georgia. The youngest of 7 boys and 1 sister. She attended the Pierce County Public School and was a graduate of Lee Street School. Upon graduation, she attended Savannah State College where she earned a Bachelors Degree in Mathematics as well as a member of the swim team. After graduating SSC, her journey lead her to becoming a teacher in the Savannah-Chatham Public School System, where she touched the lives of the many she taught. It was often said that she was "more than a teacher" to her students and it shows still today, even in her progression into eternity.
