K is for the kindred spirit for life you had.

E is for the excellent person you were “oh Lord how excellent”.

I is for the insight you gave people on their lives.

S for the spirit and selfishness that touched so many hearts.

H is for the humbleness God gave you to spread along.

A is for how you applied Keisha to all our hearts.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Family gratefully acknowledges the overwhelming acts of kindness extended to them during this season of bereavement.

The Lord bless and keep you all.

Keisha's Life Story -

KEISHA KAY DENISE EARLY was born on November 17, 1967, to Freddie Norman Early and Fay Delores Early in Philadelphia, Pa. She departed this life on July 25, 2023 after a lengthy illness.

Keisha attended the Philadelphia Public School system graduating from Olney High school in 1985. She also attended Gordon Phillips school of Cosmetology, Community College, and was a graduate of the New Hope Temple School of Evangelism.

Keisha was a hard worker and began her working career while in high school. She was employed as a Server on the Moshula and later worked at the Cheltenham Movie theatre. She was later employed with Aramark and worked in the Philadelphia Prisons and ultimately Allegheny Valley School where she worked until her health failed.

Keisha was the proud and loving mother of two children, Autumn and Corey and she later became the custodian of her nephew Tyler.

Keisha united with the New Hope Temple Baptist Church on March 8, 1992 under the Pastorate of Rev. Dr. John Coger. She was a faithful and dedicated member. Enrolling, attending and graduating from the School of Evangelism. She loved her Pastor and her church family. We shall truly miss her.

She was a genuine person, said what she said and meant what she said, she was very outgoing and caring. Keisha was a fighter, staying strong and never giving up even through her lengthy illness. She opened her home to many who were in need. She loved dancing, watching basketball, playing cards, eating, spending time with her family, cooking and family gatherings.

She will be remembered for her strength, her smile, her independence, her love and protectiveness towards her family, her sometimes stubbornness and her delightful pride. She held an unconditional love for her children.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two children, Autumn and Corey, 1 grandchild, Summer Hunte, two brothers Mark Sr, and Brandon, One Sister Ellisha, Five nephews, Mark Jr., Durrell, Micha, Tyler and D'Mitri, three Nieces, Trinity, Kyla and Faith, one Uncle Larry McCoy and Two Aunts Joan Newton and Sarah Cowan of Arizona. A host of cousins and friends, a son in law Gary Hunte and Shanice Carlton who she loved as a daughter. Four special friends, Kwaminah Greer, Kobra Oden, Sheila Snyder and Ruby Green. And her New Hope Temple Baptist Church Family

Sorrowfully Submitted, The Family
