

Mamie M, Holm was born the second child of five to Ernest and Selma (Olson) Isaacson, on a farm north of Dassel on October 10, 1914. She grew up near Cokato. They lived on the land that is now the location of the Cokato Golf Club prior to living northeast of Cokato on Smith Lake. Mamie received her early education in a one room country school. At the age of 10, her mother passed away following a Thyroid operation at the Swedish Hospital in Minneapolis. The family later returned to the Dassel community where she graduated from high school in 1933. Following graduation, Mamie took a job working for an attorney in Litchfield, then later as a cook at the cafe. On June 5, 1943, Mamie was united in marriage to Lowell Holm and they made their home in Kandiyohi. She was a member of Ebenezer Evangelical Lutheran Church in Kandiyohi and active as a Sunday School teacher, in ladies circle and other various committees. Mamie and Lowell enjoyed traveling and spending many winters in Mesa, Arizona. They were blessed with over 62 years of marriage before Lowell's passing on January 31, 2006. The following year, Mamie moved into Sunrise Village in Willmar.

Mamie passed away Sunday evening, May 12, at Bethesda Grand in Willmar at the age of 109.

She is survived by her son, James (and Theresa) Holm of Plymouth; two grandchildren; great grandchildren, and many other special relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lowell; a daughter, Linda; her parents and four brothers, Raynold (and Margaret), Willard (and Emelyn), Linton (and Evelyn) and Delbert (and Lorraine) Isaacson.

*There's a song in my heart this morning;
God placed its beauty there,
As He ushered in the eager dawn
and found the time to share.*

*A melody so precious, so cheerful, so divine;
It scattered all my anxious fears
to heaven's holy clime.
How like the gracious Master
who walks and talks to me,
To send this sweet reminder that
He wants my company!*

*That in His heavenly planning
there's a song to lift its way,
Into each heart that listens
Have you heard your song today?*
