It is impossible to find adequate words to convey the depth of our gratitude for the sympathy, love, and support you have generously offered to our family in the midst of our loss. May God shower his blessings upon you and protect you.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,*

Life Reflections

Anita L. Simpson was born December 20, 1952, in Kansas City, Missouri to Vernal Josephine Bowman-Simpson and Crit Humphrey Jr.

“Nita” was educated in the Kansas City Public School District and worked in the janitorial industry lastly. She was a beloved mother.

In her youth, she mothered two children, Pamela “Sunny” Simpson, and A’Lisa Simpson.

She enjoyed being the center of attention and socializing.

Anita departed this life on September 9, 2024, at Research Medical Center, surrounded by those who love her.

She is preceded in death by her daughter, her parents, two grandsons Sir Michael C. Simpson and Charles T. Simpson and granddaughter Samela J. Simpson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, cousins, other family members and friends.
