God's Garden

God looked around his garden,
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
And lifted you to rest;
God's garden must be beautiful-He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain;
He knew you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And hills were hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered,
"Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For a part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Elizabeth Bunce Cox, 90, of Fayetteville, NC went to heaven on September 17, 2021, with her children by her side.

She was born to the late James Harvey Bunce and Bessie Raynor Bunce on December 8, 1930. She graduated from Stedman High School in 1948 and later married Andrew Marion McMillan Jr. and had two sons and two daughters. She is survived by her children, Jeffery Neil (Melba) McMillan of Fayetteville, Quo Vadis McMillan of Bear Creek, Andrea McMillan (Barry) Pearson of Stedman, NC and Hannah McMillan of Phoenix Arizona. She is survived by six grandchildren, Alix (Sam) Crittenden, Jessie (Chris) Myers, Andrew McMillan, Iain McMillan, Connor McMillan, and Nathaniel McMillan.

In life, she was referred to as Libby or Lib by her family and many friends. Libby was an avid reader and loved to laugh with those around her. For many years, she managed a deli and delivered service with a beautiful smile. She was an outstanding cook and most famous for her sweet potato and pecan pies. Libby was a loving and caring soul who brightened the days of many family members and friends. Her presence will be missed by all who knew and loved her. To many she was a bright beacon of light that will now shine in heaven.

Lib's family will welcome friends from noon to 1:30pm at Carroll Memorial Baptist Church, 2220 Camden Road, Fayetteville, NC, on Tuesday, September 21, 2021. Her funeral service will follow at 1:30pm. The service will conclude with her burial at Lafayette Memorial Park.

Services are entrusted to Sullivan's Highland Funeral Service & Crematory.
