

Nothing Is Impossible

Hannah Rayne & Seán Nebblett

Seán Nebblett

The first system of music consists of four measures. The vocal line is a whole rest. The piano accompaniment features a treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. The right hand plays a steady eighth-note melody, while the left hand provides a bass line with eighth notes and some chords.

5

The second system contains measures 5 through 8. The vocal line begins with the lyrics: "There's a road be fore us and it leads up to the clouds. And Then we'll face the tem - pest and let God in - crease our faith. And". The piano accompaniment continues with the same melodic and harmonic patterns as the first system.

7

The third system contains measures 9 through 12. The vocal line continues with: "there are days when all is bright and songs of praise a - bound. But as a fa - mi - ly we'll learn that in His arms we're safe. For a". The piano accompaniment remains consistent with the previous systems.

9

The fourth system contains measures 13 through 16. The vocal line concludes with: "then there come those mo - ments when the dream comes crash - ing in, and when faith ful cloud of wit - nes - ses has walked this way be - fore, and for". The piano accompaniment continues with the established musical style.
