Key Concepts for Spiritual Growth

Revelation 12 portrays the history and experience of the church from the birth of Christ to the final crisis of earth's history. As such, it sets the stage for Revelation's primary focus on end-time events from chapter 13 on. It is God's purpose that the final remnant faithfully prepare the way for the second coming of Jesus.

How to Hear the Voice of God

One of the most mysterious and miraculous ways in which God reveals His sovereignty is by opening and closing doors.

God sometimes shows the way by getting in the way.

A check in the spirit is difficult to define, difficult to discern. It's a feeling of uneasiness you can't ignore. A sixth sense that something isn't quite right. A lack of peace in your spirit. A check in the spirit is God's red light, and if you don't obey the sign, you might be headed for trouble.

God closes doors to protect us.

God closes doors to redirect us

God closes doors to keep us from less than His best.

Coincidence suggests shipwreck.
Providence demands divine appointments.

What we perceive as detours and delays are often God's ways of setting up divine appointments. And they often start out as closed doors.
