

Thank you for coming today to show your love for my husband.. It only took meeting him once to remember him forever. He is and always will be my best friend and there will continually be a hole in my heart that will never heal. Fred was my soul-mate. Plain and simple. It takes some people decades to find the person they were meant to be with. It takes others several tries to find them. And some, never do.

I am one of those lucky few that found him on the first try. All it took was one look and I knew he was the man I was meant to spend the rest of my life with. I didn't get the rest of my life, but I got the rest of his. Our time together may have been cut short, but the happiness we shared together, will last a lifetime. I will mourn the lose of my husband, my best friend, my soul-mate, my everything. But, I will find comfort in the knowledge that he loves me to no end.

Fred use to always say, "God has a plan. We have to accept it and go with it." We don't know what God's plan is, but its something special and that's why He needed the heart that's as big as the world and open to everyone.

I will miss Fred until the day God calls me home and so will our children. But we will never feel alone because Fred has left behind a love that can not be broken.

Until we are together again, I'm not complete. I'm merely here, waiting my turn. Thank you for helping me find Forever. You have left me a piece of you in our children . To the greatest husband & most wonderful friend, I love you. Always & Forever

Acknowledgements

We wish to sincerely express our deepest appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown to us during the passing of our loved one. May God keep you in his care always.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks undone must stay that away.
I found that peace at close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good ties, a loved one's touch.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Obituary

Mr. Frederick Leon Knight was born on September 28, 1964 in Savannah Georgia to the late Roy and Mary Jane Knight.

Fred was educated in the Chatham County School System. At an early age he joined his dad in the construction business. He later started his career at International Longshoreman local 1414. He was employed there at the time of his death and had worked there for nearly 30 years.

Fred professed his life to Christ at an early age. In his later years Pastor Carrie Youman took him under her guidance until her death.

Fred was a fun, loving and generous person. He always took his family to the best restaurants.

On Wednesday, April 24, 2019, Fred answered God's call from labor to reward. He was preceded in death by both parents, a sister Mary Ann Martin.

He leaves to cherish his memories, a loving and devoted wife, Mrs. Dazuiya (KiKi) Knight; four daughters, Dominique, Taniyya, Alyssa and Virginia; four sons, Frederick, Jr., Marquice, Jalen and Corday; three brothers, Roy Eugene (Sharon) Knight Jr., Robbie (Aronica) Knight and Carlos Kinlaw; one sister, Katrina Knight; four aunts, Maureen (Willie) Bullock, Virginia Hardy, JoAnne Singfield and Bierdie (Steven) Williams; four uncles, William Knight, Paul Beach, Jesse (Josephine) Beach, and Alfred Martin; three great aunts, Sudie (Willie) Robinson, Annette (Earnest) Richards, and Sarah McClendon, two grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
