

~ Reflections of His Life ~

Alonzo Lee Barron was born November 13, 1969 to George and Dorothy Barron in St. Louis, Missouri. He was the youngest of five children.

Alonzo accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age under Rev. Joseph Morgan at Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church in St. Louis, Missouri.

Alonzo attended Normandy High School, and later became a Machine Engineer. He worked until he became ill.

After moving to Independence, Missouri he met the love of his life, Erica Jackson. They became an inseparable pair and united in holy matrimony on February 14, 2014.

Al, as he was so fondly referred to, was blessed with a large and loving family that he enjoyed spending time with whenever possible. His weekly calls to family members near and far, allowed him to stay connected to all. His calls will be missed.

Alonzo departed this life on Wednesday, January 26, 2022. His father, mother, sister, (Vivian) and son, (Makayle) preceded him in death.

Alonzo leaves to cherish his memory a loving wife: Erica Jackson-Barron; six children: Brittany, Marius, Cashmonay, Jamelia, Aiden Joel (AJ) and Alonna; two grandchildren: Khloe and Makayle; three brothers, Melvin (Sharon) Williams, Daryl Williams and George (Chaundra) Barron Jr; a sister, Faith Thompson; an uncle, Saul (Rose) King, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

We the family wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our many friends for all acts of kindness shown during our moments of sorrow. The Lord has been good to us and we thank you for being there with us. May God forever bless and keep each of you in our prayers.

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee*

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort; who comforted us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted. Corinthian 1:3-4
