

He did it

When he saw a run-down farm, he bought it

When he saw an acre bare,
he planted it

When he saw the seed sprout, he watered it

When the crop became ripe, he harvested it

When he saw the cow hungry, he fed it

When he saw the calf born, he cared for it

When the spirited colt threw him, he got back on and tamed it

When a challenge arose and many doubted, he always conquered it

Whenever the family had a need, he provided for it

When our precious mom needed his love, he always gave it

Now our Father has called him home, and we are doing our best to accept it
