To my family and friends

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little but not too long, and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love we once shared, Miss me --- but let me go. For the journey we all must take, and each must go alone; it's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to friends we knew, and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me— but let me go.

A Glimpse into His Life

~~ A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE ~~

Harvet attended Washington High School in Blakely, Georgia. He entered Fort Valley State College (University) and earned a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture and earned a Master's Degree in Education at Tuskegee Institute (University). Harvet began his life long journey to educate all who were willing to learn. He taught school in Decatur County (Bainbridge, GA) and Dooly County (Vienna, GA). ~~ A TIME TO REJOICE ~~

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

I Thessalonians 4: 13 - 18

What Makes A Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of might,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... "DAD!"

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.
