FRED
WAYNE LACEY

son of William Fred Lacey and Katie Lee Hale Lacey, was born February 16, 1949 in Calera, Alabama. Fred grew tired and weary and answered God's eternal summons and entered his heavenly home on Sunday, August 21, 2022. Along with his parents he was preceded in death by his sister, Mary Ann Fairbanks, his brother, Dean Lacey and his grandson, Levontae Fleming and his great-grandson, Kaden Fleming. Fred was reared in Calera where he received his formative education from the Calera Public School System.

Devoted, kind, friendly, and with a jovial spirit, Fred enjoyed life and the many pleasures he received from family and friends. He loved his family with his whole heart and reared them in a loving and nurturing home environment. He always made certain that their needs were taken care of. A grill master at heart, he loved to grill, entertain family and friends, tell jokes and play spades. For relaxation he would fish and commune with nature, visit his friends or he would listen to music. To know Fred was to love him. He was compassionate, loving, helpful and friendly. He was loved and will be dearly missed by all who knew him but always remembered with joy and adoration.

Precious memories are forever cherished by his loving wife of fifty-two years, Shirley Lacey of the home; his six children, Deborah Drummond (Michael) of Cleveland, OH, Garrett Lacey, Frederick Lacey, Levon Lacey (Penny), Tyrone Lacey of Winston Salem, NC, and Stephanie Lacey (James) of Wilson, NC; three sisters, Christine Jemison (Robert) of Calera, AL, Darlene Lacey and Tracy Lacey of GA; one brother, Willie Albert Lacey of Columbiana, AL; eight grandchildren, Keenon, Marquell, Kemia, Nezaron, Samantha, Simone, Octavius, and Daneesha; thirteen great-grandchildren; one goddaughter, Crystal Mills; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

The Broken
CHAIN

Little did we know that this day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we'll do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
You left us precious memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But, as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
