

Callbearers & Floral Attendants
Family and Friends

A D A M S
FUNERAL SERVICES
"Your Loved Ones Deserve the Very Best"
510 Stephenson Ave. | Savannah, Georgia 31405
(912) 354-6260 | www.adamsfuneralservicesinc.com

© Published By:
Trinity Graphics, Inc.

(912) 238-9646 ~ mobile (912) 604-1986
Email: trinitygraphicsinc@gmail.com

In Loving Memory

DELORES CROSS

Tuesday, January 16, 2024 | 9:00 AM
THE ADAMS CHAPEL
510 Stephenson Avenue
Savannah, GA 31405

Obituary

Dolores Cross peacefully passed away on January 4, 2024, in the city of Savannah, Georgia. She was a lifelong resident of Chatham County and dedicated her life to her family, profession, and community.

Dolores will always be remembered for her remarkable career of 33 years as an esteemed teacher. She imparted her wisdom and knowledge to numerous students throughout the years at Cuyler Middle School, Myers Middle School, Mercer Middle School, Shuman Middle School, Derenne Middle School, Richard Arnold High School, and Beach High School. Dolores's commitment to education left an indelible mark on the lives of all those she taught.

She was a beloved wife and mother, cherished by her family for her unwavering love and devoted care. Dolores leaves behind her loving husband of 59+ years, Fletcher Cross. Her three children, Stanley Cross, Pamela DeFreezer, and Michael Cross, were blessed to have her as a guiding light in their lives.

Family was of utmost importance to Dolores, and she took great delight in her role as a grandmother. Her grandchildren Hayden DeFreezer, Gabrielle DeFreezer, Trace DeFreezer, Trevor Cross, and Eric Cross will forever hold cherished memories of their time spent with her.

Dolores was preceded in death by her mother, Almathia Chisolm (nee Washington). She found solace and strength in her faith, being a dedicated worshipper at St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church in Savannah, Georgia since 1964 and was a member of the Legion of Mary. Her spiritual devotion provided her with comfort and serenity throughout her journey.

In moments of leisure, Dolores took pleasure in tending to her garden, cultivating a sanctuary of beauty and tranquility and was a member of the Orchid Society of Savannah. Additionally, she had an insatiable thirst for knowledge and enjoyed exploring and learning about various historical topics. Her passion for history was evident in her extensive collection of literature, which she shared with others to foster an appreciation for the past.

The compassionate professionals at Adams Funeral Home, located in Savannah, Georgia, are entrusted with the arrangements to honor Dolores's life and pay tribute to her memory. In lieu of flowers, we ask you to please plant a tree via alivingtribute.org

Dolores Cross will forever remain in the hearts and minds of all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her values, dedication, and love will be remembered as a testament to her extraordinary character. May she find eternal peace in the embrace of the heavens above.

Order of Service

Organ Prelude: All That We Have

Processional and Viewing: Til The Storm Passes By

Opening Prayer

Hymn of Comfort: Be Not Afraid

Scripture Reading (Old Testament):

"...The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction." -Proverbs 1:1 - 7

Scripture Reading (New Testament):

"Generosity" (for sharing the blessings of scholarship and education with so many during her life) - 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

Gospel (John 14:1-6): Father Romanus

Homily/Eulogy: Father Romanus

Selection: How Great Thou Art

Acknowledgements:

The family of Dolores C. Cross deeply appreciates the kindness, generosity, sympathy, and condolences from all who have supported us during this time.

Obituary Reading

Selection: Here I Am, Lord

Final Viewing

Final Commendation: Father Romanus

Recessional *You Look Like a Flower -
Richard Caiton*

Service of Interment

National Cemetery | Glennville, GA