Introduction:

The Oceania Junior Championships is an annual open junior event catering for players of all ages from anywhere in the world. This event switches between being hosted by Australia and New Zealand each year and always sees good representation and fierce competition between the two rival nations.

This event is being played over Easter long weekend from Good Friday to Easter Monday and will be followed immediately by the Trans-Tasman Junior Test Series on Tuesday 14 and Wednesday 15 April 2020. After fighting for individual glory over the weekend players join together to play for their country and bragging rights for the next 12 months.
