Do not judge a biography by it's length,

Nor by the number of pages in it.

Judge it by the richness of it's contents

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most poignant

Do not judge a song by it's duration

Nor by the number of it's notes

Judge it by the way it touches and lifts the soul

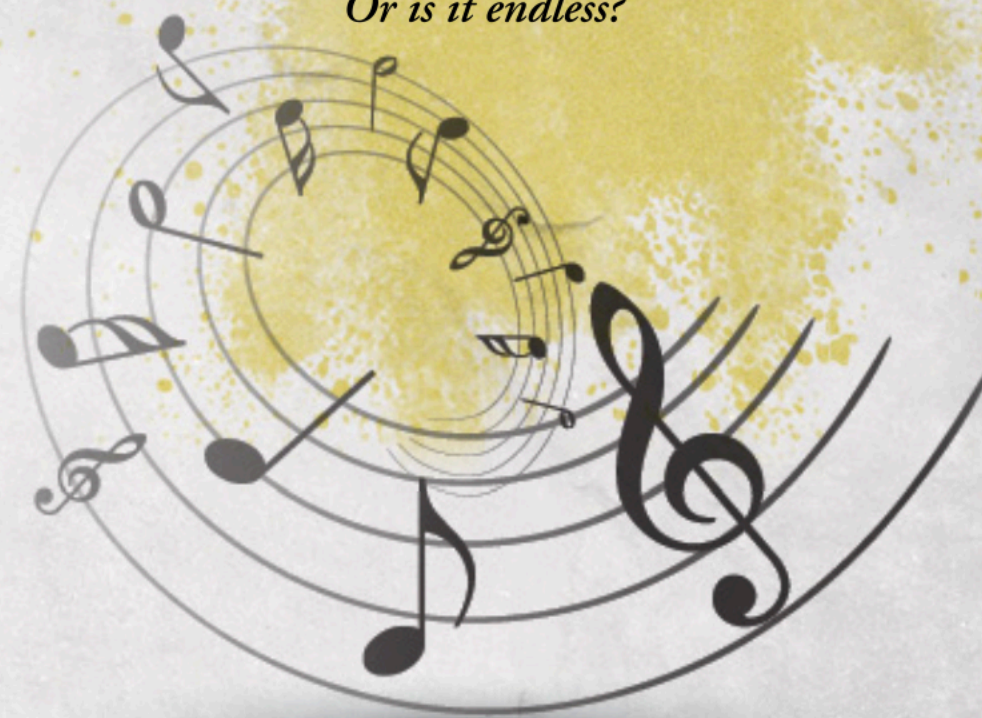

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most beautiful

And when something has enriched your life

And when it's melody lingers on in your heart

Is it unfinished?

Or is it endless?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Our family acknowledges with gratitude the many comforting expressions of love and sympathy extended during our time of sorrow. It lifted our hearts to know that you care.

May God continue to bless each of you.

IN LOVING & LASTING MEMORY OF

CHANEL
AMAYA KETTER

MAY 9, 2004 - NOVEMBER 11, 2023

CHANEL'S LIFE STORY

CHANEL AMAYA KETTER was born May, 9 2004 to Gloria Foreman and Reginald Ketter.

Chanel was educated in the Philadelphia School system and graduated from Kensington Highschool. She also went to Community College of Philadelphia for Engineering in Music.

Chanel loved music and family. She played the guitar, piano, drums, and violin. She loved to make music with her uncles Chuck and Junior. She loved spending time with her sisters Lee Lee and Jada and her 4 nieces and loved listening to music together. She was excited to be an aunt and was so very proud of them. She had many cousins and she loved them all. Chanel had a very close friend Isabella who she loved dearly. They loved to walk South St. together, so out to eat and listen to Chanel make music. Chanel had an old soul, she loved listening to oldies. Her favorites were Stevie Wonder and Michael Jackson. She was also in a band called Rock to The Future.

Chanel was a very sick child. She was diagnosed with Sickle Cell at a very young age. Even though she was often in pain she kept her head up and kept moving forward. She was a very strong individual. She would make music to help ease her pain and felt that was her therapy.

She leaves to mourn: Her Mother Gloria Foreman and Stepfather Herb Cannon. Her Father: Reginald Ketter. Sisters: Aaliyah Foreman, Jada Foreman and her 4 Nieces: Sumaiyah, Asiya, Hajar, Ruqayyah. Grand Parents Sheila Foreman, Harris Dorsey, Reginald Ketter Sr., Great Grandmother Gloria Foreman. A host of Aunts, Uncles, Cousins whom she loved dearly, and other relatives and friends.

A SONG FOR SALEM

Play a song for Salem...with calluses on her fingertips, locs blowing in the wind, make way for a new spirit.

*I can hear it in the breeze; the music from her guitar
And she's a star...
No matter how far.*

*'Cuz Grandma said, "they will soar on wings like eagles".
Play a song for Salem in the clouds because she's regal*

*We can hear it in the breeze, the whispers in the trees.
We can hear that guitar in the cold winter freeze.*

*For a girl named Shanel (Channel) we play a song for Salem.
And I can see her wings sunning calm in the city, and you may not like to be called pretty but that melanin explodes!*

*Like nebulas creating planets,
a symphony too bright to vale them*

*Make way for a new spirit, for her?
We play a song for Salem...*
