Message of Encouragement: by Kendra Carlson

You know what makes my head spin? Big scale, worldwide problems. You know, like pandemics and prejudice and growing numbers of displaced people. If these things were a headache, they'd be throbbing right now. When I think about the complexity of these problems and the impact globally, I feel small and sometimes that smallness feels scary. I can't even pretend I can fix this.

So I turn my thoughts. When I've just heard a heartbreaking story or read a statistic that shakes my core, my helpful brain starts picking at the problem, looking at it from different angles, trying to find a solution. While this is completely appropriate, the minute I sit back on my heels and admit my impact will never be enough, I turn my thoughts. Jesus, help us. Protect us. Heal us. Convict us. Change us.

I lift up my eyes to the mountains—where does my help come from?

My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. Ps. 121:1

Give the children from Adventist families in India an education in our Adventist schools so they may share the gospel with those in their home villages.
