OBITUARY

Born on March 1, 1951, in Port Wentworth, Georgia, Primus Grant Jr. was the beloved son of the late Primus Grant Sr. and Lillie Mae Grant. On October 2, 2024, Mr. Grant entered eternal rest at PruittHealth Savannah, surrounded by the love of family and God's grace.

Primus was a faithful member of the United House of Prayer for All People and served joyfully in the Rossignol Mission. His faith was his foundation, and his dedication to God shined brightly in all he did. Graduating from Tompkins High School in 1970, Primus carried his joy for life and connection with others wherever he went. He never met a stranger, as his kindness, warmth, and open heart made him a friend to all.

Primus's brothers, Edward Sanders and Herbert Jenkins, preceded him in death, welcoming him to his eternal home.

Mr. Grant was a man of many skills and talents. He worked for several years as a Certified Automotive Technician at Southern Motors, where he thrived in his passion for fixing anything with an engine. After more than 28 years of service, Primus retired from Gulfstream Aerospace in 2016, leaving behind a legacy of dedication and hard work.

Known to all as a "Grill Master," Primus had a gift for bringing people together over food. His famous fall-off-the-bone ribs, perfected with his special seasoning, were a family favorite—so tender and flavorful that they needed no sauce. He often traveled to cook for friends and families, spreading joy and love through his culinary skills. His love for cooking was evident in his work at Gulfstream Aerospace, where he cooked for many company events and gatherings.

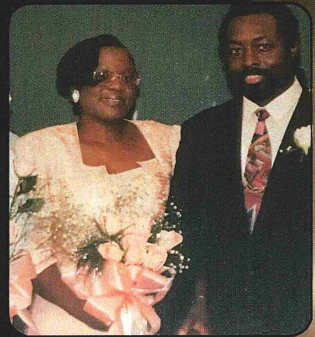

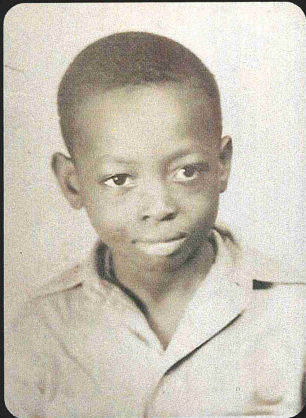

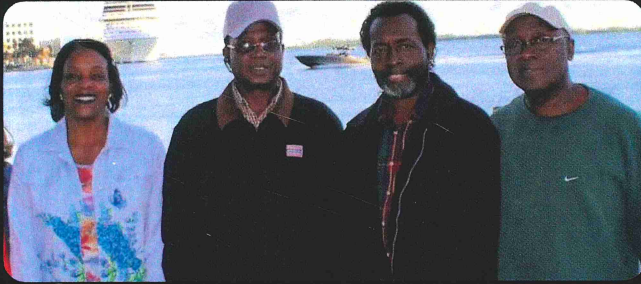

Primus loved to travel, and he embraced every journey with enthusiasm and gratitude. His most memorable adventure was his last great trip in September 2023. He proudly drove his family all the way to South Dakota, creating memories filled with laughter, beautiful sights, and love. Despite his family's concerns about the long journey, Primus insisted that he could make the drive—and he did. It was a testament to his adventurous spirit and deep love for his family. He often spoke of the desire to return to see more of the world, and his family will carry that adventurous spirit forward.

Primus Grant Jr. was a man of integrity, love, and warmth—a devoted family man, a servant of God, and a friend to all. He will be dearly missed and forever remembered.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 28 years, Nonie Grant; his son, Primus Grant III (Tré); his brothers, Joseph Grant, Bernard Grant (Sharon), and Charles Grant; his sister, Emma Charles; three sons by marriage, Freddie, Nathaniel, and Jonathan Brown; two grandsons, Primus Grant IV and Isaiah Moskowitz; three brothers-in-law, George, Walter (Cathy), and Lonnie (Denise) Dozier, all of Augusta, GA; two sister-in-laws, Francine B. Hall of Augusta, GA and Irene Sanders of Surprise, AZ; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other loving relatives.

May he rest in peace, embraced by the love of those who cherish his memory.

TO MY LOVING HUSBAND

You have now earned your wings, but while on earth, God blessed us to do so much together. First, we served God in unity and togetherness. We shared meals, cherished time together, and every Sunday morning, you would smile and ask, "What are we wearing today?" For our final outfit, I have chosen the color—purple—a symbol of love, grace, and everything you represented. I know you would be happy with my choice. Though you can't ask me to straighten your bow tie this time, don't worry—I've checked it, and it's just right.

One of the most memorable journeys we shared was our last, and greatest, family trip to South Dakota in September 2023. The beauty of Mount Rushmore, the laughter, and the bond of family filled every moment with God's grace. I will never forget how we all marveled at the scenery and carried a shared desire to one day return. That journey will forever be burned into my memory as a final blessing and a reminder of the beautiful life we shared.

I will always love you for the joy and happiness you brought into my life. I treasure the way you were always there for our family, and your love and care will never be forgotten.

Rest in peace, my love.

Your wife,
Nonie
